[1/8/2004 11:11:25 AM] [tinaSDtrader] Johnlaw - I only fight for my money if: 1) my stop not yet hit; 2) the set-up still warrants me staying in the trade. If the reason for being in the trade falls apart, I take my hit and put my $ in a high probability set-up. But the "fight" is when the trade is still solid enough to keep me interested.

[1/8/2004 6:06:13 PM] [RJMGroup] OS/2 nice? Hmm, I used it at Bell Atlantic. Not so nice. :)
[1/8/2004 6:06:53 PM] [RJMGroup] The question is why isn't IBM switching Windows for OS/2 and not Linux? :)
[1/8/2004 6:07:07 PM] [Graybik] IBM got SEC notice on deal with Dollar Genral

[1/8/2004 6:12:53 PM] [Dragon1] I was just going thru hotto's indicators, looks pretty topy and like things are tired, rolling over, any opinions
[1/8/2004 6:15:59 PM] [Dragon1] wow, do i know how to clear a room
[1/8/2004 6:17:27 PM] [Graybik] I guess that everyone was just shocked by your observation
[1/8/2004 6:18:39 PM] [Dragon1] didn't think anyone would be shocked, hotto has made us aware of how near the top he called, just wondered where i needed to trim back or maybe just sell out wholesale on the open tomorrow
[1/8/2004 6:19:19 PM] [vocal] different managment-maybe they are capable of facing eality
[1/8/2004 6:20:03 PM] [Graybik] He said earlier that he was waiting for the top of the dj at about 10670 and then he was going to get out of longs
[1/8/2004 6:20:38 PM] [lavenderangel] no, he said he would trim his long positions, not get out of all. but major trimming
[1/8/2004 6:21:00 PM] [Dragon1] exactly, and was wondering which sectors need the most trimming
[1/8/2004 6:21:03 PM] [lavenderangel] he answered a specific question i had on that think all stocks should be sold. although i'm tempted since i'm up

[1/8/2004 6:22:04 PM] [Graybik] Angel, did you understand what he was going to do re shorting?

[1/8/2004 6:22:38 PM] [lavenderangel] no, but was working while he was talking last nite so was reading in between my real work

[1/8/2004 6:23:08 PM] [Dragon1] i need to do some major trimming so i have cash to short with

[1/8/2004 6:23:10 PM] [lavenderangel] i know he wasn't shorting now because market is so strong but that will most likely change when we hit the top

[1/8/2004 6:23:47 PM] [Dragon1] he didn't offer any specific issues, probably dia and qqq etc

[1/8/2004 6:24:17 PM] [Graybik] if it's not a big pullback it might be a little touchy to short

[1/8/2004 6:24:56 PM] [Dragon1] we sure look overextended and a lot of euphoria, even here, maybe especially here in the club

[1/8/2004 6:25:27 PM] [Dragon1] dow is a straight line since mid december

[1/8/2004 6:26:04 PM] [Graybik] hotto keeps telling us, and FW as well, that we will be topping soon] I think the euphoria is for just the last couple of days

[1/8/2004 6:27:10 PM] [Dragon1] i know i am getting nervous as a cat, so maybe that is a good sign, wall of worry, etc.

[1/8/2004 6:28:12 PM] [lavenderangel] i think we could be in for a big correction but i'm hearing this from lots of others. it jsut stands to reason. look at the long runup. it just depends. but it is an election year and the powers that be could step in and keep it a small big correction limit it to 2-300

[1/8/2004 6:28:47 PM] [Graybik] I don't get the sense that this will be a big drop from targets I see FW talking about

[1/8/2004 6:29:22 PM] [Dragon1] that would suit me just fine, of course the stocks we play with are very volitile relative to the Dow, so they would / could pay a bigger price

[1/8/2004 6:29:24 PM] [lavenderangel] I don't know. I thought FW was looking at a 200-300 pt drop.

[1/8/2004 6:29:56 PM] [Graybik] but they do say that if it breaks thru 10300 or so that it will go to 9800

[1/8/2004 6:30:07 PM] [Dragon1] we need buying opportunities, but don't want any hickies getting there

[1/8/2004 6:30:15 PM] [Graybik] rough numbers

[1/8/2004 6:31:39 PM] [Dragon1] did hotto seem to think we will get a pop in the morning. He liquidated a few things after hours, something i cannot do with Scottrade--definite disadvantage, something to fix

ClubHome

[1/8/2004 6:31:52 PM] [lavenderangel] that's almost a crash to go to 9800. don't think gov't will let it happen
[1/8/2004 6:32:01 PM] [lavenderangel] it hurts bush too much
[1/8/2004 6:32:30 PM] [lavenderangel] he was taking some profit off the table because there was a pop in some stocks, i think
[1/8/2004 6:32:41 PM] [Dragon1] it's far enough from the election that it probalby would recover, and the average joe doesn't get too excited over a 10% correction
[1/8/2004 6:32:44 PM] [lavenderangel] back to work, later guyes
[1/8/2004 6:32:54 PM] [Graybik] big is relative I guess, but at the way we see the mkt move 100pts in a day without getting anybody in panic it seems the a 200-300 pt drop would not be too much
[1/8/2004 6:33:55 PM] [Dragon1] 20% is considered kind of normal for this long a time since we had one
[1/8/2004 6:34:03 PM] [DarrellHardy] it can drop as much as it wants..... as long as it is not my stocks dropping
[1/8/2004 6:34:30 PM] [Dragon1] tell me which ones those are...and i will sleep like a baby
[1/8/2004 6:34:55 PM] [RJMGroup] Yeah, I'd love to know which stocks are not part of the market too.
[1/8/2004 6:35:15 PM] [Dragon1] chicken stock, beef stock,
[1/8/2004 6:35:24 PM] [DarrellHardy] :-)
[1/8/2004 6:35:26 PM] [Dragon1] soulp weather
[1/8/2004 6:35:27 PM] [RJMGroup] LOL
[1/8/2004 6:35:41 PM] [Dragon1] cold enough for soup
[1/8/2004 6:35:47 PM] [Graybik] as long as there is no major news, ie attack, etc, if I can get out in time it would be nice to be able to come back in at a lower cost
[1/8/2004 6:36:55 PM] [Dragon1] my thoughts, but don't you just hate it when you jump off the train just as it takes off and leaves you behind, always the conundrum
[1/8/2004 6:37:11 PM] [Graybik] otherwise we will be sitting here for quite awhile waiting for the shoe to drop
[1/8/2004 6:37:41 PM] [Dragon1] oh, well, perhaps some guidance from the master, he does seem to have a crystal ball
[1/8/2004 6:37:51 PM] [Graybik] You're right. That's the dilemma, get out now and wait or try to ride it out
[1/8/2004 6:38:46 PM] [Dragon1] i wuld have had a great day except for buying emrg from a statement hotto made about it probably going back to 4.60 today, i swore i was done with it

FEELS THIS WAY. SORRY FOR CAPS, WORKING

[1/8/2004 6:39:18 PM] [lavenderangel] ABOUT KNOWING WHAT TO DO ABOUT THE MARKET NEVER GOT EMRG

[1/8/2004 6:39:41 PM] [Graybik] Yea, I took a swing at EMRG too, now sitting and hoping

[1/8/2004 6:39:53 PM] [Graybik] he did say it was a real spec play

[1/8/2004 6:40:44 PM] [Dragon1] he did, and i knew that, a momo play after the momo went away, dumb, i have done it before and i did it again, dumb

[1/8/2004 6:41:08 PM] [acmetrader] just goes to show ya, the one that pulls the trigger is utimately responsible...

[1/8/2004 6:41:16 PM] [Dragon1] absolutely

[1/8/2004 6:41:45 PM] [acmetrader] in case some don't know, Hotto is a human

[1/8/2004 6:41:55 PM] [Graybik] I wasn't sure

[1/8/2004 6:41:59 PM] [Graybik] thanks

[1/8/2004 6:42:00 PM] [acmetrader] not a bot

[1/8/2004 6:42:21 PM] [Dragon1] trading is work, but fun because of the emotional highs, unfortunately emotions are what screw you up

[1/8/2004 6:42:27 PM] [Graybik] sometimes you wonder though, don't you?

[1/8/2004 6:42:45 PM] [Graybik] boy, I couldn;t agree more.

[1/8/2004 6:43:14 PM] [Graybik] Well, off to a Cornerstone meeting. Thanks see you later

[1/8/2004 6:43:26 PM] [Dragon1] my statement was not a shot at hotto, not at all, just wanted to play with the grown ups, so i joined the party

[1/8/2004 6:44:28 PM] [Dragon1] lest it wasn't 150K shares, if jasper wasn't joking

[1/8/2004 6:44:41 PM] [Graybik] I understand. There is no excuse for not doing our own homework

[1/8/2004 6:45:25 PM] [DarrellHardy] If y'all want another spec... .check out pegs... they have had a bug in their software. If they can get it fixed soon (before clients leave) they will get a big pop.

[1/8/2004 6:45:28 PM] [Dragon1] oh well, a more informed opinion in about 75 minutes

[1/8/2004 6:46:07 PM] [acmetrader] who knows about jasper or anyone in here...it is just print on a page

[1/8/2004 6:46:28 PM] [Dragon1] not even, electrons in cyberspace

[1/8/2004 7:40:07 PM] [GoStocks] EMRG I sold at a loss @3.42 late in the day

[1/8/2004 7:42:23 PM] [napleschip] dragon. all of us here expect you to hit the gym for an hour a day for 3 or 4 days. now, don't let us down and we do expect daily reports. (is that what you wanted?)

[1/8/2004 7:42:42 PM] [Zathrus] we're having one of those semi-private chats :D

[1/8/2004 7:42:48 PM] [Dragon1] thanks napleschip, just need accountability

[1/8/2004 7:43:01 PM] [Dragon1] yeah, i got a little loud

[1/8/2004 7:43:11 PM] [napleschip] how about you pump and i'll applaud?

[1/8/2004 7:43:23 PM] [Dragon1] got confused, sold short instead of buying

[1/8/2004 7:44:25 PM] [Dragon1] that way we both get exercise, good plan;)

[1/8/2004 7:45:12 PM] [Dragon1] so who all is still holding emrg, i want a show of hands, no fibbing???

[1/8/2004 7:45:16 PM] [napleschip] hi z-man. a couple of nice stocks for longer term. SPN and WHQ. i don't own cause am afraid of overall market. but am watching these two.

[1/8/2004 7:46:04 PM] [Zathrus] Thanks Chip - I'm pretty much maxxed out right now. No more bucks to buy anything.!

[1/8/2004 7:46:40 PM] [napleschip] you're lucky zath. right now i'm all bucks and no damn courage!!!

[1/8/2004 7:46:49 PM] [johntrade] I'm holding 5K shares.. new at this not sure what to do next?

[1/8/2004 7:47:00 PM] [Zathrus] 5k of what?

[1/8/2004 7:47:07 PM] [Zathrus] that's important :D

[1/8/2004 7:47:31 PM] [johntrade] emrg @ 4.07

[1/8/2004 7:47:32 PM] [AllWeOwn] anyone else feel the top has toppled; no EMRG here, but may sell what i do hold at open. Futures were up pretty high this morning; close to classic whipsaw signal; scans showing shift; any thoughts? Hotto did say he was goign to short aggressively, but I hitnk the AH stuff he sold was pretty volatile, most he still has; he may read up a little and comment; we'll see. I SMELL a correction; see naples is already in cash; who else is in cash ???

[1/8/2004 7:47:39 PM] [napleschip] some call it being conservative and some call it being chicken sh.

[1/8/2004 7:48:00 PM] [AllWeOwn] or jsut plain smart

[1/8/2004 7:48:22 PM] [Zathrus] Some of the stocks I have look a little toppy, but others look like their just getting started.

[1/8/2004 7:51:20 PM] [Dragon1] i just want him to do a Vulcan mind meld on me, seems simple enough

[1/8/2004 7:52:36 PM] [napleschip] of course dragon...he might do one on you and scare the hell out of himself...:)

[1/8/2004 7:52:50 PM] [napleschip] just joking.

[1/8/2004 7:56:54 PM] [Dragon1] i was just talking to Zathrus how with all this information in logs, discussions, profiles, etc,---trying to put this all together is a lot like trying to put together a jigsaw puzzle where someone hid all the pieces all around the house

[1/8/2004 7:57:18 PM] [Zathrus] Hey Dragon - I found a corner!!!

[1/8/2004 7:57:23 PM] [lavenderangel] i'm actually starting to do my company's accounting stuff and then the house bills. i need a wife to do this stuff. or maybe just a really great looking male assistant. that'd be better

[1/8/2004 8:00:48 PM] [Zathrus] ah - do they have as much slobber?

[1/8/2004 8:35:15 PM] [hotto] Tomorrow.. we have an early catalyst..
[1/8/2004 8:36:15 PM] [hotto] at 830ET.. Unemployment report..
[1/8/2004 8:36:27 PM] [hotto] for December..
[1/8/2004 8:37:17 PM] [hotto] unemployment rate is expected at 5.9%
[1/8/2004 8:37:45 PM] [hotto] in this market.. most anything can be construed as Bulllsh...
[1/8/2004 8:38:16 PM] [hotto] allowing our final Gap up... maybe we get the Whole 80

[1/8/2004 8:39:01 PM] [hotto] I kept some China stocks and others.. that may GAp up point..

[1/8/2004 8:40:19 PM] [hotto] Then. wait for the 830ET report

[1/8/2004 8:41:00 PM] [hotto] If it causes futures to run up.. and some stocks...

Again.. I'll be looking to trim...and PT

[1/8/2004 8:41:27 PM] [hotto] If the PM gap up occurs.. and is big enough...

[1/8/2004 8:41:41 PM] [hotto] I will start my shorting at that time...

[1/8/2004 8:42:02 PM] [hotto] probably use DIA based on the ragged DJIA..

[1/8/2004 8:42:33 PM] [hotto] Then... I can go into Opening Bell... looking for easiest to sell..

[1/8/2004 8:43:06 PM] [hotto] Last few ST Tops.. The Gap and Run.. lasted only about 10 - 15 minutes..

[1/8/2004 8:43:26 PM] [hotto] My best profits were nailed down before 950ET

[1/8/2004 8:43:53 PM] [hotto] By 1000ET... I was shorting QQQ and SMH..

[1/8/2004 8:44:30 PM] [hotto] Again.. I use those ... because I can cover them from 800ET to 8pm ET Mon - Fri..

[1/8/2004 8:44:59 PM] [hotto] And...very easy to get into and out of... No Uptick rule..

[1/8/2004 8:45:34 PM] [hotto] SMH chart up now..

[1/8/2004 8:46:09 PM] [hotto] interesting.. now Improving..

[1/8/2004 8:46:50 PM] [hotto] SMH.. closed at NH52.. Volume increased...

[1/8/2004 8:47:24 PM] [hotto] OBV is still very neg divergent.. vs early Dec..

[1/8/2004 8:47:58 PM] [hotto] But.. Volume increase a lot.. today.

[1/8/2004 8:48:13 PM] [hotto] using zoom-9 now

[1/8/2004 8:48:53 PM] [hotto] shows that gap up Monday.. over LR30 and sma10..

Closed over Up BB

[1/8/2004 8:49:26 PM] [hotto] has been riding up the Up BB last 4 days.. Closing just above each day

[1/8/2004 8:49:41 PM] [hotto] until today.. closed well over

[1/8/2004 8:51:42 PM] [hotto] I note.. today's A/D = 2033 / 1254 on NYSE.. H/L = 506 / 6

[1/8/2004 8:51:59 PM] [hotto] similar on Nasdaq

[1/8/2004 8:52:36 PM] [hotto] DIA up now..

[1/8/2004 8:53:19 PM] [hotto] DIA still riding the LR30..

[1/8/2004 8:54:08 PM] [hotto] DIA... volume finally Increased on an up day...

[1/8/2004 8:54:19 PM] [hotto] NH52 on DIA

[1/8/2004 8:54:45 PM] [hotto] OBV is ok... not great... but ok..

[1/8/2004 8:55:08 PM] [hotto] SP-500..

[1/8/2004 9:03:17 PM] [hotto] QQQ up now.. Looks good..
[1/8/2004 9:03:38 PM] [hotto] Volume not up to the cash index.. but OK...
[1/8/2004 9:05:02 PM] [hotto] I was not able to run the scans... So.. don't have the internal indicators on AS2V.. DS2V... KR2 KRN2.. etc..
[1/8/2004 9:05:31 PM] [hotto] Market still looks very healthy...
[1/8/2004 9:05:59 PM] [hotto] most days.. down in morning.. shakes lots out.. Then Up later..
[1/8/2004 9:07:41 PM] [hotto] So... The final comment here.. is that we have a fully confirmed set of New Highs... except in DJIA
[1/8/2004 9:08:17 PM] [hotto] That will not allow us to skip a ST Top leading to a ST PB...
[1/8/2004 9:08:54 PM] [hotto] But... means we get to at least retest the Highs.. (After PB...)
[1/8/2004 9:09:00 PM] [hotto] maybe more..
[1/8/2004 9:09:19 PM] [hotto] We said that in June... and again in September..
[1/8/2004 9:09:39 PM] [hotto] note... we Got the Retest of Highs... and More !
[1/8/2004 9:10:09 PM] [hotto] T2100 up now.. new Rally High..
[1/8/2004 9:10:30 PM] [hotto] At least This is not the final Bull Mkt Top...
[1/8/2004 9:10:58 PM] [hotto] T2106.. down a bit.. but still Positive
[1/8/2004 9:11:31 PM] [hotto] so.. T2118 is still advancing.. still in IT Rally mode..
[1/8/2004 9:12:05 PM] [hotto] So.. Suppose we Don't get a Gap up .. run up....Reverse tomorrow..
[1/8/2004 9:12:40 PM] [hotto] maybe we get to gap down... some like Tues and Wed...

we should liquidate quickly tomorrow, at our stops, if need be, since you expect a correction of the market?

[1/8/2004 10:08:09 PM] [SeattleSteve] It's amazing how similar the COMPQX daily chart is to one from just over four years ago. Look at COMPQX with the last bar set to 11/11/99, zoom 4 or zoom 5. It's like deja vue.

[1/8/2004 10:08:41 PM] [SeattleSteve] Does NOT necessarily mean that the next three months will be similar to that time period. just suggests...

[1/8/2004 10:08:59 PM] [beach] moe „only if it gaps up big

[1/8/2004 10:09:02 PM] [Zathrus] Moe - depends on how PM goes - if things jumping like crazy, sell into it

[1/8/2004 10:09:14 PM] [SeattleSteve] ... that the market pattern itself is not an impediment to lots more upside in the market

[1/8/2004 10:09:51 PM] [CashMan] GN all going to gp and watch the Thursday night fights

[1/8/2004 10:10:02 PM] [Moe] Beach & zathrus....ty

the morning??

[1/8/2004 11:26:58 PM] [ilovemusicCOM] Lately I just enjoy raking in profits. I don't trade. :)

[1/8/2004 11:27:17 PM] [ilovemusicCOM] so often,, that is.

[1/8/2004 11:27:36 PM] [ilovemusicCOM] so don't know about rules like selling on gap opens

[1/8/2004 11:28:09 PM] [wildbill] wtg ILM happy to hear!

[1/8/2004 11:28:43 PM] [Stixman] It sounded to me like he thought top was here and to get out at opportune time tomorrow

[1/8/2004 11:28:47 PM] [ilovemusicCOM] wfii is right a resistance now and at the point where hotto said he would sell it, so just wondering.

[1/8/2004 11:29:46 PM] [ilovemusicCOM] anyone know why WFII took off today?

[1/8/2004 11:30:30 PM] [erisalaw] I understand a newsletter "guru" recommended it.

[1/8/2004 11:30:42 PM] [erisalaw] That was WIFI.

[1/8/2004 11:33:03 PM] [Stixman] Is anyone concerned that the "Top" is apparently on us?

[1/8/2004 11:33:40 PM] [Cartman] top of what?

[1/8/2004 11:33:53 PM] [ilovemusicCOM] 17% in one day is good enough for me :)

[1/8/2004 11:34:08 PM] [Stixman] Didn't Hotto suggest tonight that we should take profits tomorrow?

[1/8/2004 11:34:22 PM] [ilovemusicCOM] sorry can answer that stixman

[1/8/2004 11:34:29 PM] [RkyMtnFool] I think the excitement in WFII was due to the VZ build out plans.

[1/8/2004 11:34:29 PM] [Cartman] i thought you took profits when it was profitable?

[1/8/2004 11:35:23 PM] [ilovemusicCOM] look at the volume spike on WFII; looks like a nice break out to me

[1/8/2004 11:35:26 PM] [Stixman] Read chat around 10pm est. How do you interpret his comments??

[1/8/2004 11:36:26 PM] [daytrader1711] Anyone else having problems with Hottoworks tonight?

[1/8/2004 11:36:58 PM] [Cartman] working just fine dt

[1/8/2004 11:37:12 PM] [Nance] was looking for info about VZ to see rocky answered - here's notes from briefing this morning -European stocks having a day of solid gains led by telecommunications-equipment companies including Nokia (NOK), on optimism spending on their products will increase. This comes after Verizon (VZ), the biggest U.S. local-phone company, said it will spend $1 billion through 2005 to expand nationwide a network that provide wireless Internet access at high speeds

[1/8/2004 11:39:01 PM] [Cartman] isn't it beautiful how INTC rode along its 100sma after the early dec break downward only to gain on this run?

[1/8/2004 11:39:15 PM] [RkyMtnFool] Hotto works for me.

[1/8/2004 11:40:03 PM] [Stixman] Daytrader ..did you understand Hotto to say to take profits tomorrow morning as he thinks a top may be immanent?

[1/8/2004 11:40:17 PM] [RkyMtnFool] Rephrase: hottoworks works for me. :8

[1/8/2004 11:42:38 PM] [daytrader1711] I missed the whole day, as well as Hotto's chat session. But, that seems to be the common theme for tomorrow from what I've been reading.

[1/8/2004 11:44:33 PM] [RkyMtnFool] Note the "IF" -- [1/8/2004 8:40:00 PM] [hotto] If big gaps at 800ET.. I will look to start PT at that point..

[1/8/2004 11:46:02 PM] [RkyMtnFool] [1/8/2004 8:40:19 PM] [hotto] Then. wait for the 830ET report. If it causes futures to run up.. and some stocks... Again.. I'll be looking to trim...and PT

[1/8/2004 11:46:13 PM] [Luigistock] I was at the beach that day Rky "kinda" on vacaation had KOsp, SEPR, MLNM all gapped up over $2 then squash pulled serious jack that day cuz i got out thanx to hotto

[1/8/2004 11:53:11 PM] [long351] re tasr, heres what prevented me from shorting it..... they have a "razor blade model" as they sell more tasers, the fwd rev strem grows exponentially bc they sell the reloads for them

[1/8/2004 11:53:31 PM] [long351] and no, i'm not long, although i was from 8 to 12

[1/8/2004 11:53:31 PM] [honus99] luigi, when TASR finally breaks it will be a long fall
