[1/17/2004 11:26:08 AM] [auctionsxx] no
[1/17/2004 11:28:04 AM] [Stoploss] It is hottoworks.com though, instead of marketworks don't know why
[1/17/2004 11:28:32 AM] [Stoploss] Hottoworks all the same
[1/17/2004 11:29:06 AM] [Borankin] Market works is his site's old name. Hottoworks, is based on his name.
[1/17/2004 11:29:37 AM] [StopUser] OK StopL - a participant in his site? (is that better Bor?)
[1/17/2004 11:30:35 AM] [Borankin] I was wondering where he came up with the hame Hotto. He answered that the other day. His hame is Herbert Otto. Kind of cool, I

[1/17/2004 11:33:22 AM] [StopUser] That's news to me Bor - his name...I've wondered that too

[1/17/2004 11:33:48 AM] [Coop54] =D

[1/17/2004 11:34:05 AM] [Borankin] It's king of your real name being Seymour Topuser.

[1/17/2004 11:35:24 AM] [Borankin] like

[1/17/2004 11:35:40 AM] [StopUser] I'm not that clever Bor...

[1/17/2004 11:38:18 AM] [Borankin] Some great screen names on here.

[1/17/2004 11:39:33 AM] [Borankin] It amazes me how many of the prolific contributors here are ladies. That's super.

[1/17/2004 11:42:50 AM] [Borankin] One thing I really like about TCNet is that when I hit " . " two times, I get a digital readout of the various Moving Averages shown in my window 1. I like that.

[1/17/2004 11:42:53 AM] [Stoploss] Long or Short trade 'em up or tad'emdown

[1/17/2004 11:46:59 AM] [Borankin] QQQ is amazing so far this month. Only 2 down candle days, and two doji day. The rest have been open body candles. That means that buyers have consistently been the dominant group.

[1/17/2004 11:48:40 AM] [StopUser] bummer - I bought some puts on QQQ 1/10. sold 'em Thurs. - that up day on higher vol. spooked me. For good reason, huh?

[1/17/2004 11:49:04 AM] [StopUser] bought put 1/9

[1/17/2004 11:49:29 AM] [StopUser] not 1/10

[1/17/2004 12:09:30 PM] [hotto] Another Great week.. in the new Bull Market !
[1/17/2004 12:11:01 PM] [hotto] I entered this week... nervous that we would have a negative week.. After some kind of phony run-up to touch the 10635 - 10673 zone..
[1/17/2004 12:11:46 PM] [hotto] Chart is Shared.. will re-share
[1/17/2004 12:12:41 PM] [hotto] But.. I was over 150% Long.. coming into the week..
[1/17/2004 12:13:01 PM] [hotto] So.. my favorite condition.. for gains..
[1/17/2004 12:13:33 PM] [hotto] Numbers say up... Stocks With Good Charts.. all around..
[1/17/2004 12:13:53 PM] [hotto] and... my nerves say....Look out..
[1/17/2004 12:14:16 PM] [hotto] As usual... that combination.... worked well for gains to the Long side.
[1/17/2004 12:14:44 PM] [hotto] Even going into Friday.. I found few charts that I wanted to Short..
[1/17/2004 12:15:02 PM] [hotto] and - lots of new stocks... showing new BO s
[1/17/2004 12:15:42 PM] [hotto] Then.. Friday morning.. a new G+ stock.. in the CE group... ACLS.. Guided higher
[1/17/2004 12:16:00 PM] [hotto] So.. after some early PT in PM gappers..
[1/17/2004 12:16:19 PM] [hotto] my first new entry... was Long ACLS..
[1/17/2004 12:17:09 PM] [hotto] Thursday AH.. JNPR reported above ests.. and Guided Higher..
[1/17/2004 12:17:42 PM] [hotto] We had entered JNPR a few days. ago... on the New Govt..contracts..report..
[1/17/2004 12:18:10 PM] [hotto] in which JNPR got some business that was expected to go to CSCO..
[1/17/2004 12:18:39 PM] [hotto] So.. JNPR was the star of that day... Also CIEN won big contracts
[1/17/2004 12:19:28 PM] [hotto] Comments in the JNPR conf call... started the massive telecomm eqpt rally on Friday..
[1/17/2004 12:20:12 PM] [hotto] Some had doubted... our JDSU Long.. from below $4.. on the late Dec. tax selling
[1/17/2004 12:20:40 PM] [hotto] JDSU BO over the 4.71 SH.. and moved to over 5
[1/17/2004 12:21:20 PM] [hotto] AVNX.. another we were buying on weakness in late Dec.. on our Cap-x for 2004 ideas..
[1/17/2004 12:21:56 PM] [hotto] AVNX.. we bot heavily about 4... surged to over 7 yesterday
[1/17/2004 12:23:02 PM] [hotto] FNSR... another we bot on weakness in late Dec.. about 3.. closed over 4.. on huge volume
[1/17/2004 12:23:45 PM] [hotto] BKH... another we bot about 2.15 in late Dec..

[1/17/2004 12:29:38 PM] [hotto] Friday was my best day in over 3 years..

[1/17/2004 12:29:58 PM] [hotto] eclipsed the "best day" reported last week.

[1/17/2004 12:30:39 PM] [hotto] It took both... good stock selection.. and.. some active trading.. using our "Inventory methods"...

[1/17/2004 1:16:06 PM] [hotto] We discussed it more.. in Oct. and Nov...

[1/17/2004 1:16:39 PM] [hotto] anyway.. AVNX ended up in a "Theme " list...

[1/17/2004 1:16:57 PM] [hotto] we did a lot of buying on weakness in December 2003.

[1/17/2004 1:18:03 PM] [hotto] Last down day in Dec.. was 12/24/03.. then an 8 day runup to a ST top.. on 1/9/04..

[1/17/2004 1:19:07 PM] [hotto] THEN AVNX did a PB testing the SMA10.. on 1/15/04

[1/17/2004 1:20:24 PM] [hotto] there had been a brief pause.. on 1/8.. made a lower low.. at 5.32.. then ended the day.. with a strong rally... back over LR30.

[1/17/2004 1:23:22 PM] [hotto] then.. as it dipped back.. to sma10.. I added back the shares.. The "Inventory Method" in action..

[1/17/2004 1:24:10 PM] [hotto] If it had fallen below the 5.32 LOD from 1/8... I would have sold part or all of the posn..

[1/17/2004 1:24:45 PM] [hotto] Fortunately... AVNX reversed up.. from a LOD = 5.51.. and I was relieved

[1/17/2004 1:25:01 PM] [hotto] oops.. another thing happened..

[1/17/2004 1:25:37 PM] [hotto] Maybe on 1/9... after close.. AVNX was mentioned on Kudlow & Cramber.. favorably..

[1/17/2004 1:26:07 PM] [hotto] Stock jumped to 6.25 or so.. Well one of those days..

[1/17/2004 1:26:31 PM] [hotto] I sold part of posn.. in AH.. at 6.20... I recall..

[1/17/2004 10:44:51 PM] [StonePagan] Hi all--I'm reviewing the class today in the logs: can anyone tell me if it's possible to get to see the charts that were shared? Are they archived somewhere? Thanks for any help!

[1/17/2004 10:46:15 PM] [Sharon1555] If you put in the ticker symbol you should be able to pull them up ... don't know how you can get them off the logs...

[1/17/2004 10:47:15 PM] [StonePagan] Ty Sharon

[1/17/2004 10:47:20 PM] [Sharon1555] yw

[1/17/2004 10:52:29 PM] [w2jc] at this time, all the weekly Elliott Wave Analyzer chart sets have been updated at <http://www.elliottwaves.us> -- these include: Major Indexes, DJ-30 stocks, MG Sectors, SirPoolPlayer & Ycc & w2jc watchlists and 1400+ stocks.

[1/17/2004 11:03:16 PM] [StonePagan] Hi anyone still around--I have another question: I have Hotto's F1 and F3 templates: can someone either give me a quick hint as to the main way he uses them, or point me to a specific location I could find this out? I tried searching the logs but so many hits it's a big job! Thanks for any help.

[1/17/2004 11:05:19 PM] [Aktony] I do not understand the differences, haven't looked at the templates closely. As I recall, he uses F1 to decide whether to enter a stock and F3 to decide whether to stay in it. Hope this helps.

[1/17/2004 11:12:01 PM] [Wildhog] Aktony - just the oposit. F3 to get in and F1 to stay in

[1/17/2004 11:12:36 PM] [Aktony] Thanks.

[1/17/2004 11:14:07 PM] [StonePagan] Thanks both of you--I'll keep studying!

[1/17/2004 11:15:15 PM] [Aktony] Believe Wildhog, I was uncertain.

[1/17/2004 11:23:12 PM] [Odyssey] Stone, I believe the only significant difference is the MACD times which indicates the time frame. Hotto's F1 uses MACD 3,8,13 (a short term time frame) and F3 uses a 12,26,9 (a longer tme frame); you might want to look in the help file for TCNet about MACD settings to get a feel for timing. :)

[1/17/2004 11:32:51 PM] [Optimus] StonePagan, hotto uses F3 to get into a trade and uses F1 to determine if he should stay in it.

[1/17/2004 11:40:07 PM] [Boge] F1 also tells hotto the start of a move.

[1/17/2004 11:42:13 PM] [Optimus] That part I don't know about. What I just related was what he told me.

[1/17/2004 11:42:56 PM] [StonePagan] Thanks a lot. What are the key signals?

[1/17/2004 11:43:41 PM] [Boge] I guess i must have it on the chat line.

[1/17/2004 11:43:52 PM] [StopUser] Evening...would any of you be kind enough to share Hotto's F1, F2 templates so I can see what you guys are talking about?

[1/17/2004 11:44:17 PM] [StopUser] or is it F3?

[1/17/2004 11:45:32 PM] [StonePagan] Here's what I have for F3; I seem to have failed to save F1!

[1/17/2004 11:45:52 PM] [StonePagan] If anyone has it convenient, please share.

[1/17/2004 11:46:08 PM] [Boge] fq start of a move macd

[1/17/2004 11:46:17 PM] [StopUser] I have that one...just didn't know it's "name"...thanx

[1/17/2004 11:47:00 PM] [Optimus] This is hotto's F1 that I am sharing.

[1/17/2004 11:47:07 PM] [Boge] f1 start of the move -----macd 3 8 13

[1/17/2004 11:47:49 PM] [StopUser] I don't remember seeing that one - thanx

Optimus

[1/17/2004 11:48:00 PM] [Optimus] You are welcome.

[1/17/2004 11:48:03 PM] [StonePagan] Yes thanks

[1/17/2004 11:48:05 PM] [Sharon1555] sorry to interrupt but F3 is the start and F1 is entry

[1/17/2004 11:48:25 PM] [StopUser] intraday or daily?

[1/17/2004 11:48:47 PM] [Sharon1555] whoops F1 continuation... too much of a class today

[1/17/2004 11:48:57 PM] [Sharon1555] daily

[1/17/2004 11:49:10 PM] [Sharon1555] but assume you can use it on all times frames

[1/17/2004 11:49:26 PM] [StopUser] so Sharon...F3 triggers entry...F1 tells you how long to stay in?

[1/17/2004 11:49:43 PM] [Sharon1555] F1 tells you that the trend is continuing

[1/17/2004 11:50:26 PM] [bmweyrauch] optimus - your chart does ot show stochs 12, 3, 5 that I believe are on both hotto F1 and F3 charts

[1/17/2004 11:51:16 PM] [StopUser] do you have correct template bmw?

[1/17/2004 11:51:37 PM] [Boge] you can see how fast macd 3 8 13 can get you in.

[1/17/2004 11:52:07 PM] [Optimus] bmw, you are right. I have another here in my archive that does have it, sorry about that, here is the real one.

[1/17/2004 11:52:07 PM] [bmweyrauch] yes...optimus, your chart now matches my hotto F1 chart I copied 1/1/2004

[1/17/2004 11:52:46 PM] [StopUser] no stochastics?

[1/17/2004 11:53:15 PM] [bmweyrauch] see optimus chart up now...it is current...includes stochs

[1/17/2004 11:53:31 PM] [StonePagan] Opti now has Stoch 12,3,5 on the chart

[1/17/2004 11:54:15 PM] [StopUser] OK that's what he put up earlier...

[1/17/2004 11:54:40 PM] [StonePagan] He just changed it

[1/17/2004 11:54:54 PM] [Optimus] Yeah, for some reason I have a template "Hotto F1" and another "Hotto's F1" don't know how that happened.

[1/17/2004 11:55:16 PM] [Optimus] The current one displayed is the correct one.

[1/17/2004 11:55:35 PM] [bmweyrauch] agree optimus :)

[1/17/2004 11:55:40 PM] [StonePagan] Thanks all, very helpful--I like all the pretty color;)

[1/17/2004 11:55:52 PM] [StopUser] I saved this last one...thanx will delete first share. It does get nuts. I spent the holidays deleting 45 PCF's, 20 EasyScans, about 15 templates

[1/17/2004 11:56:54 PM] [Optimus] StopUser, I can identify with that. I keep trying to learn new stuff and sometimes confuse myself.

[1/17/2004 11:57:30 PM] [StonePagan] I pulled an all-nighter last night instaling all Hotto's PCFs, a bunch of candlestick PCFs, and 15 new watch lists. No time to think about tradin=D

[1/17/2004 11:57:44 PM] [Optimus] I am going to remove the share if everyone has it. Say no otherwise.

[1/17/2004 11:57:55 PM] [StopUser] got it...ty

[1/17/2004 11:58:02 PM] [StonePagan] gotit

[1/17/2004 11:58:37 PM] [Optimus] yw

[1/17/2004 11:59:23 PM] [bmweyrauch] a good idea to get unused itmes out of the system from time to time.....can always cut and past PCF to notepad or Word if you think you might want to import again someday (PCFs)

[1/17/2004 11:59:25 PM] [StonePagan] Gb all--late.

[1/17/2004 11:59:39 PM] [Optimus] I am trying to create a PCF that finds eminent BO's. Anybody got one?

[1/17/2004 11:59:40 PM] [bmweyrauch] GN stone..me tooooooo :)

[1/17/2004 11:59:44 PM] [StopUser] I did that bmw...saved 'em

[1/17/2004 11:59:53 PM] [StopUser] nite you 2
