"last mile" will use lots of connectors.. from ADCT
[12/19/2003 12:30:25 PM] [hotto] I see big targets in ADCT.. could happen... 12 ? 20

[12/19/2003 12:49:32 PM] [jbrad] IVAN - I went long at 4.00 and am holding -- XNG--X has been going down all day. Maybe it will turn up soon -- colder weather heading for the east coast :)

[12/19/2003 12:49:41 PM] [jynkin] IVAN has overhead (those who bought and still hold over 4.50) now that it didn't have in October.

[12/19/2003 12:57:01 PM] [hotto] Profit.. yes.. the "Orange alert" helps the bears.. push down.. but.. Bulls have the Momo.. .. Bears also have the ST top chart points.. Plenty to argue about..

[12/19/2003 12:57:51 PM] [CashMan] ProfitTrader yes and that is why I just have a small postion it. When the volume picks up I will start adding to it.

[12/19/2003 1:02:44 PM] [hotto] Hate getting help from terrorists..

[12/19/2003 1:03:37 PM] [ProfitTrader] Hotto, I am not the shorting guy. Down the road SEC should impose limits on Shorting on 'Down Alert', just like they have one for 'Down tick' -=D

[12/19/2003 1:04:24 PM] [hotto] It's just a personal thing... Remember how I was when Paul was in Iraq...

[12/19/2003 1:04:29 PM] [dwells129] anyone out there bored and have time for a simple question. Simple to you, complex to me. How do options expiring affect a stock price? i am long on AAI and want to know if after today, can i expect it to finally go up? do the MM guide a stock to make the options less valuable?

[12/19/2003 1:05:26 PM] [Investortrader] dwells, usually if there are lots of options at one strike price, the stock will close there to make them all worthless, not always but many times

[12/19/2003 1:05:32 PM] [hotto] Really hurt my Feb March profits... but... all - in - all.... Plenty to be thankful for this year...

[12/19/2003 1:06:11 PM] [hotto] esp... having my whole family here... for my Bday.. and Christmas season

[12/19/2003 1:06:12 PM] [dwells129] how can i find out if lots of options at one strike price?

[12/19/2003 1:06:18 PM] [Investortrader] Something called Max Pain for option calculations also, but that doesn't always work either

[12/19/2003 1:06:28 PM] [hotto] brb... coffee

[12/19/2003 1:07:15 PM] [hotto] max pain did not work much.. last month... Often.. is just another fool's game... for taking money from Traders.

[12/19/2003 1:07:54 PM] [Investortrader] Right Hotto, sometimes it works and sometimes it doesn't

[12/19/2003 1:08:11 PM] [Investortrader] I don't use it myself, but I know some like it

[12/19/2003 4:16:15 PM] [hotto] ANSR.. on 12/5.. the day of the Break-down "scout".. I thought that called for a test of the gap..
[12/19/2003 4:17:16 PM] [malealltrash] Hotto please stop saying GAP I now have 20K shares of A&P
[12/19/2003 4:17:35 PM] [malealltrash] everytime us say "gap" I buy
[12/19/2003 4:18:01 PM] [hotto] That morning.. I had a GTC buy order execute.. at 5.38 ? not sure now... Anyway.. sold out about 5.75 on the first bounce..
[12/19/2003 4:19:16 PM] [hotto] ANSR.. I worried about this one.. ever since the slowing volume.. on 12/1.. Hope most everyone avoided the pain on this one..
[12/19/2003 4:19:48 PM] [malealltrash] I did I just coked up KO
[12/19/2003 4:19:58 PM] [hotto] Now.. about to complete the needed PB.. Then.. we can ride it back up... Probably to Higher highs..
[12/19/2003 4:20:22 PM] [ProfitTrader] ANSR too early for gap prediction. If VOIP and other groups are hot next week, ANSR might fill gap towards end of week/month. I had cancelled all my buy orders last time we debated. It will pop us -ve. YTD gain about 40-60%. Tax selling candidate..

[12/19/2003 4:36:11 PM] [ProfitTrader] LVLT is where it started year. Not too much tax selling expected. With addition to Index might get expected breakout end of Dec./early Jan during portfolio adjustments. Cheapest ($wise) stock among the 8 new stocks being added to Index. In good shape if it crosses above 5.60 on good vol. Vol. should not be the issue for LVLT...I will watch until mid Jan..

[12/19/2003 4:42:10 PM] [imlucky] tiga...there is a way to do it I was discussing it here with someone in Alaska very early in the AM about 2AM eastern time. I don't remember his name but how many traders are there in Alaska?
