[1/7/2004 11:11:03 AM] [FortuneFinder] TRIB players... Notice that the 5-min. and the 10-min. are bottoming out on the stochastics set at 20,5,5. It appears that the stock may go up for a bit today. HOWEVER, the 30-min. and the 1-hour look like they're rounding off even though they have not gone way up in the stochastics. This suggests to me that it will end lower later in the day (see the regular F1 daily chart), but we can take some quick profit in a few hours and get back in tomorrow after the first hour.
[1/7/2004 11:11:04 AM] [bmweyrauch] GLNG - nice one toby...you called it last night I

[1/7/2004 1:39:09 PM] [Caegan] yes back in '99 and '00, they were paying a lot of attn to what I did. Then I did hiatus and when returned, had major case of bad judgement. Have had to relearn everything, get rid of some terrible habits, etc. Your tutelage on market stuff, sector rotation etc has been soooo helpful. And I'm doing so reliably well with Oz's picks, in particular setups have been a little safer for me.

[1/7/2004 6:50:08 PM] [SeattleSteve] One of the unconscious ones!

[1/7/2004 6:50:28 PM] [FirstWave] Coffee will move the scale for me

[1/7/2004 6:50:49 PM] [Kasa] iwas away, ttfssf- i bot on good sales, just one aaaaanalist covering the company and according to him a miss by 6c, white candle suggested buying,

[1/7/2004 6:51:41 PM] [Investortrader] Move it from unconscious to conscious? Hehehe

[1/7/2004 6:51:47 PM] [SeattleSteve] I have noticed that, so far this year, the stocks with the biggest % gains year-to-date have shown some tendency to keep going up.

ClubHome

See EMA today as a good example. Any thoughts on how long into the year this might continue?

[1/7/2004 6:52:27 PM] [SeattleSteve] Actually CGM is the best example

[1/7/2004 6:52:59 PM] [acmetrader] But in a strong market you can get away with #1, #2

[1/7/2004 6:53:04 PM] [Investortrader] Usually lasts about 6 trading days give or take

[1/7/2004 6:53:30 PM] [SeattleSteve] Wow, two more days like this would be simply amazing

[1/7/2004 6:53:45 PM] [acmetrader] we are starting to see greed, the top is near

[1/7/2004 6:54:12 PM] [Investortrader] Give or take, remember ;)

[1/7/2004 6:55:05 PM] [Investortrader] Were people already starting to compound their first days gains into a yearly rate of return?

[1/7/2004 6:55:15 PM] [SeattleSteve] Yes, the greed factor may start to get pretty strong after this afternoon's activity

[1/7/2004 6:55:16 PM] [Investortrader] That's a sure sign of a top lol

[1/7/2004 6:55:20 PM] [acmetrader] I just did in my head

[1/7/2004 6:55:30 PM] [acmetrader] [[[human

[1/7/2004 6:55:41 PM] [Investortrader] Especially if they do it on a stock they only owned for an hour!

[1/7/2004 6:55:53 PM] [acmetrader] 3 hours, lol

[1/7/2004 6:55:58 PM] [Investortrader] Hehehe acme

[1/7/2004 6:56:14 PM] [SeattleSteve] That was a nice trade, acme!

[1/7/2004 6:56:26 PM] [Investortrader] I missed this afternoons fireworks :(

[1/7/2004 6:56:45 PM] [SeattleSteve] There were lots of them, IT

[1/7/2004 6:57:00 PM] [acmetrader] very sweet...well got taken out of ITIG too early due to a limit order I forgot about, so it worked out nicely

[1/7/2004 6:57:04 PM] [Investortrader] I see at least two from looking at stocks I had planned on buying on a BO or a pb

[1/7/2004 6:57:04 PM] [Rookie] Crap! EMRG spiked! I really need to learn to rea the charts. Put in a sell order last night for 2.28. Duh!

[1/7/2004 6:57:12 PM] [Rookie] read

[1/7/2004 6:57:35 PM] [Investortrader] I think I talked about EMRG last night Rookie, forget what I said though lol

[1/7/2004 6:57:44 PM] [SeattleSteve] Not sure this move was in the chart, Rookie

[1/7/2004 6:57:51 PM] [acmetrader] Rookie don't think the charts could show this..it just happened

[1/7/2004 6:58:11 PM] [acmetrader] ^5 SeattleSteve

[1/7/2004 6:58:19 PM] [SeattleSteve] LOL

[1/7/2004 6:59:07 PM] [Investortrader] These parabolic moves won't last long, there will be a pb, then some basing

[1/7/2004 6:59:28 PM] [acmetrader] and some bashing...ah

[1/7/2004 6:59:34 PM] [Investortrader] lol

[1/7/2004 6:59:49 PM] [Rookie] acme. I think that's the same line I used on my ex wife's dad when we found out she was pregnant:):8:D

[1/7/2004 7:00:07 PM] [Rookie] It just happened!

[1/7/2004 7:00:08 PM] [HOTTO] Tanstaaf! has replied to: PCF for OBV over 5MA

[1/7/2004 7:00:15 PM] [HOTTO] Tanstaaf! has replied to: PCF for OBV over 5MA

[1/7/2004 7:01:23 PM] [Rookie] At least I made a profit and that is the first $$ I have made using TCNet:)

[1/7/2004 7:02:33 PM] [CashMan] IT I sold ITIG early today also and one thing I have learned is it will pb and base again. So I will wait for another setup for it. :)

[1/7/2004 7:03:24 PM] [lavenderangel] IT, is it lesson time and if so, could you look at DDDC please

[1/7/2004 7:03:27 PM] [Investortrader] I have too CashMan, I'm ITIG-less lol

[1/7/2004 7:03:55 PM] [Stitch] Congratulations Rookie, I'm glad to see TCNET is paying off for you.

[1/7/2004 7:04:14 PM] [Investortrader] DDDC ...

[1/7/2004 7:04:54 PM] [Rookie] thx. Stitch. A small step but in a way a giant one for me!

[1/7/2004 7:04:58 PM] [Investortrader] Are you in it already lavender?

[1/7/2004 7:05:03 PM] [wiseman] Down to 1/4 position here. sold at 6.69 and 7.34 and 7.44

[1/7/2004 7:05:49 PM] [wiseman] no 6.49 is correct first sale

[1/7/2004 7:05:50 PM] [lavenderangel] no a friend of mine his, i thought it was basing a bit

[1/7/2004 7:06:04 PM] [CashMan] IT I'm not upset about it. I made a nice profit of it. I'm trying to learn the FDU and volume thing now. Been researchng hotto's MOMOH rules this afternoon :)

[1/7/2004 7:06:39 PM] [Investortrader] I'm not upset either, can't let emotions drive trading .. and another trade will always be coming along!

[1/7/2004 7:06:41 PM] [Voyager3K] is DDDC a classical formation. I feel like it is but not sure

[1/7/2004 7:07:43 PM] [lavenderangel] i thought it might soon be ready to take off, do you agree?

[1/7/2004 7:07:45 PM] [Investortrader] Closed in the upper half of the range today too

[1/7/2004 7:08:13 PM] [SeattleSteve] If DDDC starts to move up from here, buy it

[1/7/2004 7:08:15 PM] [acmetrader] Ok Lavendar, can I use you to vent my anger at then?

[1/7/2004 7:08:44 PM] [lavenderangel] sure, i was fit for bears this morning.

ameritrade wouldn't let me at my account, i couldn't trade.

[1/7/2004 7:08:47 PM] [Investortrader] It's at some slight resistance here now but looks good to me

[1/7/2004 7:09:15 PM] [lavenderangel] thanks, IT. it's nice to know I read it right.

that's what i told him. to hang on to it. he

[1/7/2004 7:09:27 PM] [lavenderangel] he's up a tad on it now.

[1/7/2004 7:09:36 PM] [CashMan] :D

[1/7/2004 7:10:04 PM] [Investortrader] It could always pb to the middle BB and 50sma which have converged, I wouldn't worry about that

[1/7/2004 7:10:25 PM] [lavenderangel] ok i understand

[1/7/2004 7:12:26 PM] [Bobtrader] can you look at SIRI

[1/7/2004 7:12:43 PM] [lavenderangel] yea!!!

[1/7/2004 7:13:06 PM] [Investortrader] SIRI ...

[1/7/2004 7:14:42 PM] [Investortrader] Came right down to the LR30, and bounced a bit .. was on bigger volume

[1/7/2004 7:16:11 PM] [Investortrader] Was the JBLU news about SIRI or XMSR?

[1/7/2004 7:17:01 PM] [kab] xmsr

[1/7/2004 7:17:43 PM] [Investortrader] Ok, could be a reason why SIRI continued to sell off, but the chart said today would be down more

[1/7/2004 7:18:55 PM] [Investortrader] I wouldn't want to see it close under the LR30 at all, if you aren't out yet, that would be my line in the sand

[1/7/2004 7:19:21 PM] [malealltrash] Good Evening all

[1/7/2004 7:19:26 PM] [malealltrash] how is everyone tonite

[1/7/2004 7:19:32 PM] [malealltrash] hi IT

[1/7/2004 7:19:33 PM] [Pops] SIRI had a lot of news today -many announcements about new capabilities at press conference at trade show

[1/7/2004 7:20:05 PM] [malealltrash] IT someone told me to watch GIGM what do charts say on that one

[1/7/2004 7:20:55 PM] [malealltrash] yep
[1/7/2004 7:21:34 PM] [Investortrader] I don't like making comments on these really low priced ones as I have never traded them .. but it loks ok here, came up nicely off the bottom, the middle BB is holding it so far

[1/7/2004 7:23:58 PM] [malealltrash] Hotto bought into EMRG think @ 3.63 said he sees 5.00
[1/7/2004 7:24:32 PM] [Investortrader] OCPI was one I tried to buy before the new year, but didn't ... looks like it had a nice base and with the middle BB, the 50sma and the LR30 all converging that should be good support there
[1/7/2004 7:25:41 PM] [acmetrader] I had a 4.95 sell order in after hours, lowered it to 4.40 and it took..thent he thing dropped...hah
[1/7/2004 7:25:58 PM] [Investortrader] The one concern I would have about it is the OBV is starting to drop a bit much
[1/7/2004 7:27:41 PM] [Investortrader] Wow, EMRG really flew today!

[1/7/2004 7:31:18 PM] [acmetrader] but, hey....it moved
[1/7/2004 7:31:20 PM] [Investortrader] Not sure about the history lavender, but I look at it as a concern and wouldn't want it to drop thru the support, looks like it could easily test that support looking at the OBV
[1/7/2004 7:31:46 PM] [malealltrash] Hotto Says 5.00 I am not marryign this one
[1/7/2004 7:31:57 PM] [CashMan] lavender the 10 and 20 day crossing looks like it gives more credence to it's up move than the obv IMPO. What do you think?
[1/7/2004 7:32:16 PM] [lavenderangel] I can weather it. have had it since nov 4. took some profit and sitting on rest

[1/7/2004 7:33:34 PM] [Investortrader] BBa was one I was having all sorts of problems with the specialist, had to call schwab about half a dozen times

ma20 again and bounce

[1/7/2004 7:36:14 PM] [Investortrader] Tried to buy at 7.98 when the ask was at 7.98, only got 300 shares, then saw 3400 more shares trade at or below my 7.98 bid, and I was first in line

[1/7/2004 7:36:36 PM] [malealltrash] how do u know u were first in line

[1/7/2004 7:37:20 PM] [Investortrader] male, because I took out the 300 shares on the ask, so my bid for the rest of the order is first in line, there wouldn't be anyone ahead of me or they would have taken our the ask

[1/7/2004 7:37:22 PM] [SeattleSteve] The rules for filling orders are very very different for NYSE vs. Nasdaq

[1/7/2004 7:38:14 PM] [SeattleSteve] Market vs. limit for example. NYSE fills market orders before limit orders. Nasdaq does the opposite

[1/7/2004 7:38:15 PM] [Investortrader] Maybe so SS, but in this case, I'm first in line, and the specialist made trades under my bid!

[1/7/2004 7:38:30 PM] [malealltrash] then report it

[1/7/2004 7:38:45 PM] [SeattleSteve] If it was a market order he may "have to."

Exchange rules

[1/7/2004 7:39:07 PM] [Investortrader] If it's a market sell, he can fill my best bid at 7.98 first, that is a rule

[1/7/2004 7:39:22 PM] [SeattleSteve] Seems crazy to those of us used to trading Nasdaq stocks

[1/7/2004 7:39:40 PM] [SeattleSteve] Not if the other bid was a market order

[1/7/2004 7:39:42 PM] [Investortrader] I did call schwab, they have always gotten my fill when I thought I was due

[1/7/2004 7:40:14 PM] [SeattleSteve] He may have to fill the other one first, even if yours is better... and earlier

[1/7/2004 7:40:35 PM] [Investortrader] He can't fill it below my bid without filling me first, market or not, not below!

[1/7/2004 7:41:12 PM] [SeattleSteve] LOL, Ask someone who really knows. I suspect he can

[1/7/2004 7:41:26 PM] [Investortrader] Well, schwab said I was due a fill, so I got one

[1/7/2004 7:41:35 PM] [SeattleSteve] Reverse can happen on Nasdaq, which is how I learned about this

[1/7/2004 7:42:13 PM] [SeattleSteve] I put in a market order for 2000 shares of ARBA. It didn't fill for seven minutes, while the stock traded hundreds of thousands of shares

[1/7/2004 7:42:17 PM] [Investortrader] This was on 1/2

[1/7/2004 7:42:24 PM] [SeattleSteve] And ran up about 10%

ClubHome

[1/7/2004 7:42:41 PM] [Investortrader] How was that resolved SS?
[1/7/2004 7:42:46 PM] [SeattleSteve] Turns out it was "legal" although still questionable
[1/7/2004 7:42:54 PM] [SeattleSteve] Because...
[1/7/2004 7:43:09 PM] [SeattleSteve] There were hundreds of limit orders coming in
[1/7/2004 7:43:33 PM] [SeattleSteve] And on Nasdaq, all of those get filled before market orders in a "fast market"
[1/7/2004 7:43:47 PM] [Investortrader] I rarely use market orders, but when I do I've gotten filled right away and at the bid/ask
[1/7/2004 7:44:05 PM] [Investortrader] Fast Market, I know that from futures trading, and brokers aren't held in fast market conditions
[1/7/2004 7:44:15 PM] [acmetrader] me too IT
[1/7/2004 7:44:26 PM] [acmetrader] that sounds like they stretched it

[1/7/2004 7:44:50 PM] [SeattleSteve] If a Nasdaq stock is ramping you are much better off putting in a limit order a few cents higher than you think you need than you are putting in a market order
[1/7/2004 7:44:57 PM] [SeattleSteve] brb
[1/7/2004 7:45:01 PM] [malealltrash] if stock moving fast I put in market order have always gotten filled @ the ask

[1/7/2004 7:45:51 PM] [Investortrader] They get back to me in a couple hours, saying the specialist went home early on Fri, and to call back on Mon if I don't see them in my account
[1/7/2004 7:46:04 PM] [w2jc] i usually bid a penny or so higher than ask instead of mkt order just for this reason
[1/7/2004 7:46:06 PM] [malealltrash] think brokerage wants the commissio n on 50
[1/7/2004 7:46:23 PM] [Investortrader] I've done that a couple times before too w2jc
[1/7/2004 7:46:29 PM] [lavenderangel] I got stuck today with 218 shares. sold 82

[1/7/2004 7:48:44 PM] [Investortrader] So I buy more at 8.41, doubling my position

[1/7/2004 7:49:28 PM] [malealltrash] there is an order in to buy EMRG 32,184 shares @ 4.35

[1/7/2004 7:50:08 PM] [malealltrash] what a weird # to buy

[1/7/2004 7:50:14 PM] [Investortrader] Then I see it stalling at 8.60, and try to put in an order to sell all my shares including the ones not yet credited to my account, and checked the box saying I physically own the shares and will deliver them to schwab before settlement (which is how I was told to do it when told they wouldn't show up till later that day)

[1/7/2004 7:50:35 PM] [decdog] Big money flow into EMRG this MAD cow thing is big

[1/7/2004 7:52:55 PM] [Investortrader] It did get filled, but now I am long some shares and short more shares, waiting for the other shares to be credited

[1/7/2004 9:31:08 PM] [hotto] We are very close to a ST top... yes..
[1/7/2004 9:31:59 PM] [hotto] But... when ? I expect the DJIA to have one more surge... to try for the 10673 Target..
[1/7/2004 9:33:10 PM] [hotto] note.. over 10635 approx.. satisfies the "top test" ... so... I will be cutting back longs aggressively... as we get near that number..

[1/7/2004 9:35:18 PM] [hotto] the action in the nanos... and now EMRG ITIG... others... make me feel kinda "frothy"...
[1/7/2004 9:36:34 PM] [hotto] now.. if we could go up... and slam into that DT line... then reverse down.. could be enough to start a ST PB.. Before the Runback up for the EARns Season
[1/7/2004 9:37:26 PM] [hotto] So.. I will be eliminating stocks where there has been little interest... or bad patterns...
