[4/20/2004 12:17:28 PM] <ProfitTrader> TASR gives new meaning to phrase 'do not catch falling stun gun'

[4/20/2004 12:17:39 PM] <Newkid49> NITE=-.03, AMTD=nice turnaround earlier, INGP=-.01

[4/20/2004 12:17:41 PM] <eemarlin> bounce artx bounce

[4/20/2004 12:17:58 PM] <hotto> tina... watching this mess.. makes me like your position..

[4/20/2004 12:18:23 PM] <tinaSDtrader> Can't remember who wrote it but it stuck - "Don't catch a falling knife, let it hit the floor, stop quivering, then pick it up."

[4/20/2004 12:18:30 PM] <hotto> headed for the cash barn.. piece by piece..

[4/20/2004 12:19:44 PM] <VJnet> ty pay
[4/20/2004 12:19:48 PM] <AtlantaRob> Have you read the story Tina I think in the New Market Wizards, about the Fundamentalist that knocked the knife off the table and watched it fall and stick in his shoe, when asked why he didn't get out of the way he said he thought it was going to come back up
[4/20/2004 12:19:49 PM] <payck> yw
[4/20/2004 12:20:09 PM] <hotto> MAGS.. 31.61 now... yikes... that sell was correct.. so far..
[4/20/2004 12:20:18 PM] <tinaSDtrader> SMH - my cover point was right near 200sma, worked perfect.

[4/20/2004 12:22:05 PM] <AtlantaRob> I wish I wasn't in cash but all my stops got hit
[4/20/2004 12:22:22 PM] <tinaSDtrader> don't mean to panic anyone, just feels weird today this mkt. Took my toys and left the playground.
[4/20/2004 12:22:28 PM] <Steven57> well, then you are in cash
[4/20/2004 12:22:48 PM] <tinaSDtrader> that stinks Atlanta - but if they have gone lower feel good about it

[4/20/2004 12:23:18 PM] <tinaSDtrader> Like TBUS, took one win and then a bigger loss on it, but very glad now out.
[4/20/2004 12:23:22 PM] <Pops> The sandbox feels empty..

[4/20/2004 12:23:54 PM] <AtlantaRob> I know, that's why I use them, but you can make it just as easily as you lose it if you follow your rules (I hope)

[4/20/2004 12:23:57 PM] <ilovemusicCOM> speaking of cash, had no choice recently THER was taken out of portfolio and I was given cash for it.

[4/20/2004 12:24:15 PM] <ilovemusicCOM> didn't even have to sell it.

[4/20/2004 12:24:25 PM] <tinaSDtrader> Way too many traders forget you can always buy a stock back on the way back up. Novile concept.

[4/20/2004 12:24:36 PM] <Moe> TBUS I hope it gets up there again.... I'm holding 13,81 :(

[4/20/2004 12:24:46 PM] <ilovemusicCOM> but easier said than done...buying back a stock.

[4/20/2004 12:24:56 PM] <hotto> Moe.. yikes.. pain

[4/20/2004 12:25:11 PM] <tinaSDtrader> I prefer buy back versus hold down. Once gets way down can take weeks/months to get back = opportunity cost. Not to mention psychological pain of seeing the negative daily in account.

[4/20/2004 12:25:18 PM] <turningpoint> long idnx

[4/20/2004 12:25:58 PM] <tinaSDtrader> right music - don't just buy back, must have a buy set-up and confirmation.

[4/20/2004 12:26:07 PM] <Moe> Tina you are so roght.... <

[4/20/2004 12:26:16 PM] <Moe> right

[4/20/2004 12:26:17 PM] <ilovemusicCOM> must have a system and a reason for buying back.

[4/20/2004 12:26:18 PM] <tinaSDtrader> Treat it as a new trade versus chasing the snake that bit ya.

[4/20/2004 12:26:41 PM] <Newkid49> retail=52of82 to + side.....just htinking

[4/20/2004 12:26:54 PM] <ilovemusicCOM> yes, a friend of mine bought a stock back emotionally...lots of shares

[4/20/2004 12:27:02 PM] <ilovemusicCOM> and that was the end of his trading career.

[4/20/2004 12:27:04 PM] <Sully> yes Tina don't play with snakes without anti-snakenite serum

[4/20/2004 12:27:05 PM] <Newkid49> my retail list

[4/20/2004 12:27:10 PM] <tinaSDtrader> bad move to buy back for revenge

[4/20/2004 12:27:40 PM] <payck> hotto, are you selling VICL?

[4/20/2004 12:27:48 PM] <tinaSDtrader> Save your emotions for people, not stocks. People spoon better anyway..)

[4/20/2004 12:28:39 PM] <MikeCV> tina, SMH is one of the purest trading vehicles i have seen. i make money day trading in my ira, even 4/15. nice trade.

[4/20/2004 12:29:14 PM] <tinaSDtrader> I love trading SMH

[4/20/2004 12:29:28 PM] <hotto> TBUS.. now up 1.10 from the low....D

[4/20/2004 12:29:30 PM] <MikeCV> me too

[4/20/2004 12:29:31 PM] <tinaSDtrader> Mainly when market very conducive or it's giving a good chart pattern

[4/20/2004 12:29:32 PM] <Quintus> if i see this Att/Attwireless 2 guys in one suit commercial again i'm going to become emotional not in a good way

[4/20/2004 12:29:45 PM] <turningpoint> vol coming into idnx

[4/20/2004 12:29:51 PM] <JAHman> IDNX

[4/20/2004 12:30:54 PM] <ron643> this must be turn around Tuesday

[4/20/2004 12:30:55 PM] <corvette68> Tina, sometimes buy - sell - buy - sell in a close range is much cheaper than the continued ride down. It is so hard to admit error on large loss when you could have said, yup did not meet my expectations in small buy - loss actions.

[4/20/2004 12:31:12 PM] <Newkid49> retail=for +s today....just htinking

[4/20/2004 12:31:41 PM] <tinaSDtrader> nothing has cost me more than hanging on to a loser, so learned the hard way on those.

[4/20/2004 12:31:48 PM] <Quintus> whoa RIMM not so great anymore. another "tweezer" top on daily. i used to buy those, not no more Billy. unless for daytrade which i 'm considering right now

[4/20/2004 12:32:19 PM] <JAHman> CALM almmost 33

[4/20/2004 12:33:54 PM] <Moe> TBUS 32 nice gree bars in 5 min, probable runing ponit...let's hop

[4/20/2004 12:34:06 PM] <Moe> 3 green bars in a row

[4/20/2004 12:34:08 PM] <napleschip> hi tina..any advantage trading SMH over QQQ? patterns almost identical.

[4/20/2004 12:34:12 PM] <Newkid49> IPIX?

[4/20/2004 12:34:57 PM] <hotto> VICL.. sold half.. holding the rest.

[4/20/2004 12:34:59 PM] <tinaSDtrader> I trade both QQQ and SMH

[4/20/2004 12:35:19 PM] <VJnet> hello TBUS

[4/20/2004 12:35:22 PM] <napleschip> seem like they're first cousins.

[4/20/2004 12:35:49 PM] <Stixman> long TASR....ceo on cnbc

[4/20/2004 12:36:13 PM] <Quintus> Tina, i know for me using the reports that GTT TradeLog creates has been a form of truth serum. i have had months where i made $15k but lost $14.5k but wouldn't have known either amount w/o the software. John Wooden calls that Activity without Achievement. I now am focused primarily on managing that "L" side of the report.

[4/20/2004 12:36:15 PM] <acmetrader> he could be electrifying

[4/20/2004 12:36:18 PM] <VJnet> be careful stix...this guy is a pr person's nightmare

[4/20/2004 12:36:36 PM] <acmetrader> or he could be shocking

[4/20/2004 12:36:44 PM] <hotto> Hey guys.. it's all Trader vs Trader...right now.. We need a big huddle.. The bigs have their radars trained on us...

[4/20/2004 12:36:45 PM] <VJnet> :D

[4/20/2004 12:37:13 PM] <payck> so what's your call coach hotto?

[4/20/2004 12:37:15 PM] <tinaSDtrader> Quint - I stay very on top of wins/losses - must know how you're doing, imho

[4/20/2004 12:37:17 PM] <Sully> you are so right Hotto

[4/20/2004 12:37:19 PM] <Newkid49> IPIX

[4/20/2004 12:37:25 PM] <SeattleSteve> Hotto, what do you think the bigs are trying to accomplish here, then?

[4/20/2004 12:37:30 PM] <Stixman> thx VJnet ...I saw him last time...not planning on holding long

[4/20/2004 12:37:52 PM] <payck> run the market down, then up after greenspan maybe?

[4/20/2004 12:38:15 PM] <hotto> CALM.. Out.. - may be repeat...

[4/20/2004 12:38:17 PM] <acmetrader> it does feel like a wrestling match

[4/20/2004 12:38:19 PM] <tinaSDtrader> TBUS gave many who wished they'd sold a rally to sell on, after big run up often wants to pullback or rest.

[4/20/2004 12:38:51 PM] <acmetrader> hotto seems to buy big run ups

[4/20/2004 12:38:55 PM] <VJnet> good for you stix...at least you've seen him before. he may have gotten the job by lasting longest as a crash testor for TASR

[4/20/2004 12:39:05 PM] <hotto> TBUS.. out now..

[4/20/2004 12:39:15 PM] <tinaSDtrader> Now TBUS at 50ema 5s and 200 MAs 1mins, needs to clear those.

[4/20/2004 12:39:23 PM] <tinaSDtrader> See, hotto knows!

[4/20/2004 12:39:33 PM] <hotto> SSteve...Take our $$$...

[4/20/2004 12:39:34 PM] <tiga> TASR hit head on 1 50

[4/20/2004 12:39:36 PM] <tinaSDtrader> There she goes

[4/20/2004 12:40:03 PM] <hotto> They think we "outside traders" are just worthless interlopers..

[4/20/2004 12:40:17 PM] <Newkid49> 4MACD'ers....IPIX ok on 15'?

[4/20/2004 12:40:27 PM] <tinaSDtrader> we know our worth hotto

[4/20/2004 12:40:38 PM] <acmetrader> perhaps TASR well enter the ED market, we need more commercials on TV anyway
[4/20/2004 12:40:50 PM] <nemsca> Hotto..what price did u get for the calm sale??
[4/20/2004 12:41:15 PM] <tinaSDtrader> Huge lesson if you're losing - If in a stock you should have been out of, rallies are good selling opps at less of a loss than you were at before. Just a thought.
[4/20/2004 12:41:36 PM] <hotto> Tonight.. I will discuss the other "B" word... the one with no "L"s...
[4/20/2004 12:41:53 PM] <hotto> I ran out of time and energy last night..
[4/20/2004 12:42:08 PM] <Newkid49> his eyes look like he was #1 tester.....just hthinking
[4/20/2004 12:42:10 PM] <acmetrader> is your neck better?
[4/20/2004 12:42:16 PM] <hotto> yeah... it is early still.. BUt... need to begin thinking.. ..

[4/20/2004 12:42:54 PM] <hotto> Before tonight... read the Ned Davis article in Barrons from last weekend..
[4/20/2004 12:43:00 PM] <husker> We always get this right before greenspan speaks.
[4/20/2004 12:43:05 PM] <Elm> TASR CEO on CNBC, same old sales pitch.
[4/20/2004 12:43:10 PM] <Quintus> evening news last night -- all 3 big networks -- at least 1/2 of all commercials were Big Pharma. knew that was growing but it seemed extreme. sorry, nothing to trade on. i'm obviously bored.
[4/20/2004 12:43:15 PM] <malealltrash> u never know what he will say
[4/20/2004 12:44:22 PM] <Elm> Sully, maybe that accounts for his repeating himself.
[4/20/2004 12:45:06 PM] <hotto> Preservation of capital . There are no "good stocks"... just "good profits".. or "good charts"...
[4/20/2004 12:45:31 PM] <turningpoint> amen
[4/20/2004 12:45:52 PM] <Stixman> TASR trying to hold 50 sma
[4/20/2004 12:45:53 PM] <hotto> stocks are just a means of allowing some insiders... legally take money from the public..
[4/20/2004 12:46:16 PM] <Elm> Hotto, should we be thinking of impact of Fed talk tomorrow?
[4/20/2004 12:46:21 PM] <hotto> Along the way... we traders may skim off a few $$$..
[4/20/2004 12:46:45 PM] <hotto> Elm.. Greenie speaks later today... And tomorrow..

[4/20/2004 12:47:21 PM] <hotto> that's why many are curling up with cash..
[4/20/2004 12:47:53 PM] <mstrader> Hotto, like that definition of stock. insider convenience.
[4/20/2004 12:48:23 PM] <poppop_1943> hotto, tina, investortrader - just want to say thanks for all the teaching you do. some of it must be sticking. detected the sour smell and was mostly out by 11:00 with a moderate gain instead of waiting till the fall. still lots to learn, but becoming profitable more that losing. feels good. want to stay humble and in a learning mode rather than getting over confident. have heard too many war stories. cash right now feels really good.
[4/20/2004 12:48:29 PM] <hotto> MAGS.. 30.62 LOD.. DBD !!!!!
[4/20/2004 12:49:00 PM] <Redzone> QQQ, DIA, SPY don't look that bad ... trading near top of yesterday's candle ... perhaps just a pause day ?

DBD at 32.20. I set an alert there, and the rest is history (or Hotstory.) Thanks.

[4/20/2004 12:50:26 PM] <Harley> y

[4/20/2004 12:50:28 PM] <malealltrash> I don't know about SNIC but SNIKERS could eat 10

[4/20/2004 12:50:34 PM] <malealltrash> snickers

[4/20/2004 12:51:05 PM] <hotto> Of course... it could reverse up again.. we don't know that.. BUT.. here is the story... from the momo perspective....

[4/20/2004 12:51:07 PM] <tinaSDtrader> pop - the market constantly humbles me!

[4/20/2004 12:51:26 PM] <hotto> sorry... too involved... I will do MAGS tonight.

[4/20/2004 12:52:22 PM] <Brokenbob> Funny, though: MAGS looks pretty attractive on 15' (from the outside looking in that is.)

[4/20/2004 12:52:43 PM] <tinaSDtrader> every time I do the market makes sure to put me in my place.

[4/20/2004 12:53:09 PM] <hotto> Remember.. early morning... we discussed the problem for Security stocks today... the TASR earns "reward"... It has come true..

[4/20/2004 12:53:14 PM] <poppop_1943> i've certainly spent enough time in the last 8 months eating my share of humble pie.

[4/20/2004 12:54:00 PM] <hotto> as always... we don't "know" what will happen.. but.. we get little factors that adjust our R/R equation..

[4/20/2004 12:54:08 PM] <mlowery> STKR takes off again

[4/20/2004 12:54:11 PM] <Quintus> worst part about IB, their stock loan inventory is terrible. will have to get new broker if/when bear sets in again

[4/20/2004 12:54:26 PM] <wjonass2> Hotto is this a good re-entry point for IEIB ? tia

[4/20/2004 12:54:31 PM] <hotto> that is all we have to work with.. R/R... probabilities..

[4/20/2004 12:54:52 PM] <Quintus> yes that is ALL

[4/20/2004 12:55:27 PM] <turningpoint> vol coming sbgi

[4/20/2004 12:56:28 PM] <hotto> IEIB.. the HOD may have been enough to satisfy the snapback.. next ??? If you believe in Up... this may be ok..

[4/20/2004 1:13:54 PM] <tinaSDtrader> Have to trade smart these that run on news but aren't really solid - They get really volatile then fizzle out. If there is no real meat, you may hold a long time (if ever) to get it back. If playing the high flyers, entry and exit points extremely critical, imho.
[4/20/2004 1:14:07 PM] <softrock> nice tiga

[4/20/2004 1:16:26 PM] <tinaSDtrader> Go back and look at charts of the pump-n-dump, big move up, drift all the way back down. They're usually good for one to a few days. Lock in profits. Holding them all the way back down ridiculous, imho of course.

[4/20/2004 1:17:48 PM] <tinaSDtrader> Of course we in here are trading them while their being exploited, but each here has a responsibility to realize what they are getting into. Don't just follow blindly and then hold it all the way back down.

[4/20/2004 1:35:26 PM] <tinaSDtrader> The pump n dump I'm talking about is like MACE that got a ride with the security stocks, not stocks that are solid.

I think there's a lot of investors out there just waiting for this to turn around. Then again, maybe we're just stupid for holding so long :P

[4/20/2004 4:14:00 PM] <dagwood> same story here...Ma inlaw (83) did a swan dive in the bedroom Saturday....got out of the hospital today....A-OK

[4/20/2004 4:30:17 PM] <really> ASKJ reported earnings after the bell. Ask Jeeves beats by $0.05, pro forma
[4/20/2004 4:30:22 PM] <croy> askj is comming back to level
[4/20/2004 4:30:36 PM] <croy> let's see if it holds
[4/20/2004 4:30:49 PM] <croy> or it is just a short squeeze

[4/20/2004 4:32:29 PM] <croy> OBV is useless in AH so can't confirm the trend

[4/20/2004 4:38:52 PM] <croy> I saw a peek over 20$
[4/20/2004 4:39:38 PM] <croy> Well one thing to rememeber so many people went to cash this aft ... they are all looking for something like MOT
[4/20/2004 4:40:38 PM] <Pops> $20
[4/20/2004 4:41:58 PM] <croy> To be expected ERICY AH is popping too
[4/20/2004 4:42:10 PM] <West> mot really helping the futures
[4/20/2004 4:42:36 PM] <croy> should be yes
[4/20/2004 4:43:18 PM] <croy> besides as I said earlier Greenie only said the bank where ready he didn't say he was raising the int rates
[4/20/2004 4:43:35 PM] <Quintus> the MOT numbers compared to "expectations" are truly unreal. how a major company could post such different numbers from the analysts is almost unthinkable. gonna be a kicker for sure in the morning. but #s so wacko i just could not participate.
[4/20/2004 4:44:40 PM] <Quintus> Hotto beautiful call on MAGS DBD being "very important" (your quote). it was one of many signs during late morning trading.
[4/20/2004 4:44:40 PM] <croy> so once people cool down I wouldn't be supriised a short squeeze and a hope rally even short lived goes on ... very minimally seller's remorse
[4/20/2004 4:45:10 PM] <croy> CGNX +0.02

[4/20/2004 4:46:48 PM] <Quintus> JBLU still a kicker from sma50 that held. the power of the kicker signal is exemplified here, in the fact that JBLU - a high beta stock - actually held tough all day.
[4/20/2004 4:47:35 PM] <croy> yup I was in most of the day It is making a flag of some sort waiting for a turn of the market to at least do another trial at the top

[4/20/2004 5:10:07 PM] <croy> Ok ... I am done and USD still rising on the forex
[4/20/2004 5:10:50 PM] <croy> This moment of AH insanity was brought to you by MOT still rising
[4/20/2004 5:11:44 PM] <croy> 20.35 talk about extended
[4/20/2004 5:13:25 PM] <Johnster> Actually, I think the MOT reaction is a lot more rational than the other foolishness we've seen with defense stocks doubling on a measly $1m contract...at least they clobbered estimates and stck was oversold ...makews sense to me. It's extended, but not up 2-300% like we've been seeing with others.
[4/20/2004 5:14:33 PM] <croy> Ah comoon Jonhster ... you must be a fundamentalist ... I love playin stock with PE ratois of a gizillion to noe and about 75K$ of revenues for a market cap of 250M$
[4/20/2004 5:15:08 PM] <croy> just pulling your leg to see a real cie like Mot rise is almost refresshing
[4/20/2004 5:16:07 PM] <Johnster> Then you've come to the right place, croy. You're right...it IS refreshing (still might try to short it tomorrow or Thursday when it gets REALLY over=extended).
[4/20/2004 5:17:25 PM] <mace> IS a large part of RFMD rev on sale to MOT?
[4/20/2004 5:19:44 PM] <croy> Of course that is one reason I watch so carefully the AH earnings with the proper skills one can scalp short these explosions but my point was aimed at stocks that have no fundamental or rise on rumors to a point they no longer make sense ... I always asked myself who was buying those cause to sell them you need to sell them to someone !!!
[4/20/2004 5:21:03 PM] <croy> Mace you have a good point ... RFMD no fresh news
[4/20/2004 5:21:48 PM] <croy> Ok guys ... Gn Beer time or as StockStalker puts

it bear time

[4/20/2004 5:22:01 PM] <daniel329> interesting book to read is "Extraordinary Popular Delusions and the Madness of Crowds" by Mackay, written over 150 yrs ago and still as good as today

[4/20/2004 5:22:01 PM] <mace> you expect RFMD to gap up or just move up?

[4/20/2004 5:22:19 PM] <StockStalker> read that 10 years ago.. great book

[4/20/2004 5:23:43 PM] <croy> Daniel ... a crowd is a crowd ... it's been like this for as long as human race been here ... we used to be sheeps in our mind

[4/20/2004 5:23:44 PM] <Johnster> The problem doing that, croy, is there seems to be no ceiling for these fools...look at STKR LAST night...after closing up over 100% on some diddy-shit contract, it proceeded to riise ANOTHER 50%+ AHs to close over 6. Then it opens today close to 8...a "rational" short at 6 would have hurt plenty (tho' it ended today at 3.74...can be painful waiting it out, tho")

[4/20/2004 5:24:30 PM] <croy> Johnster ... trust me I only stay in those trade scalp time 2min to 45 min max

[4/20/2004 5:24:32 PM] <Quintus> someone knew something on CALM ? or CALM mgmt just trying to get this thing done before further price erosion ? this the kind of crap that makes me much more day-trade focused than most folks in here. i like only to hold o/n either portions of daytrade winners, small lots of range contracted thangs like IDSA last few days, or a position initiated at the close (like MTSX on Friday in low $8's).. no positions CALM just cant stand these o/n gap losers

[4/20/2004 5:25:42 PM] <dagwood> CALM.. it was on the agenda of their shareholders meeting. It was obvious to come out at some point.

[4/20/2004 5:25:57 PM] <dagwood> Last week

[4/20/2004 5:25:58 PM] <Quintus> Mackay - had that book on shelf for 18 months now -- been re-reading Douglas and Farley multiple times instead.

[4/20/2004 5:26:09 PM] <croy> yuk yuk yuk ... you read those LOL

[4/20/2004 5:26:56 PM] <croy> I used to be an insider trust me these news do leak out

[4/20/2004 5:27:04 PM] <Quintus> not mad at anyone for doing more/better fundy research than i. hence the shorter-term stance than most

[4/20/2004 5:27:49 PM] <lavenderangel> What happened at meetting for CALM? see it's down big. for once I sold it today at profit

[4/20/2004 5:27:57 PM] <Quintus> thx Dag, that is not even scandalous. unlike MACE "opening the insider selling window" at a perfect time

[4/20/2004 5:28:12 PM] <croy> actually last week I was watching a bid on CNBC about leaks from the feds 4oclock in the morning breakin the printer shop that was printing material about econo stats for the next day ... some people will go far

[4/20/2004 5:28:42 PM] <dagwood> I'a 4 million shares offered

[4/20/2004 5:29:35 PM] <Quintus> i'm not big conspriacy guy, but data releases, by their nature, Have to be known by Someone first ! logistically impossible for "public" release all at one moment.

[4/20/2004 5:29:36 PM] <lavenderangel> I should have voted against it. I abstained.

[4/20/2004 5:30:26 PM] <Quintus> Lav. you coulda made a difference ! your vote matters. oh well we'll just find another money-maker. hell that might be CALM on the gap down.

[4/20/2004 5:30:45 PM] <croy> Quintus .. .and there familly and brother in law and cousins and other far fetched relatives humans are humans

[4/20/2004 5:30:50 PM] <croy> fear and greed

[4/20/2004 5:31:05 PM] <dagwood> everything in this market is a conspriacy... read "Trading With the Enemy" you can just see the "Cramers" at work.

[4/20/2004 5:31:42 PM] <Quintus> Cramer book have some value ? seriously, i'm asking.

[4/20/2004 5:32:21 PM] <dagwood> Worth reading... I thought it was good insight of the Bigs
