[3/19/2004 1:46:51 PM] [BossFan] LTON volume now bigger than yesterday...this reversal looks real, unlike the moves on 3/12 and 3/15

[3/19/2004 1:47:30 PM] [hotto] yes.. AND an "old " IPO thing... Buy at half price..

[3/19/2004 1:47:54 PM] [hotto] HOY = 19.50... Half = 9.75..

[3/19/2004 1:48:09 PM] [hotto] today - Low = 9.69

[3/19/2004 1:48:29 PM] [BossFan] I'm so psyched I added at 10.04 this AM...need 10.97 to break even

[3/19/2004 1:48:50 PM] [hotto] Offering price was 14... AND.. also..use FIB numbers..

[3/19/2004 1:49:04 PM] [AllWeOwn] boss saw your post this am; you are not short on guts

[3/19/2004 1:49:17 PM] [BossFan] TOMO has a similar pattern...

[3/19/2004 1:49:36 PM] [hotto] delta = approx 10... so Fib.382 = 13.50

[3/19/2004 1:49:45 PM] [BossFan] believe me, I felt pretty bad when I saw it at 9.70:P

[3/19/2004 1:49:56 PM] [nan111] hotto, I learn something new everyday in your club

[3/19/2004 1:50:12 PM] [hotto] Fib.500 = 14.69... approx..

[3/19/2004 1:50:16 PM] [BossFan] covered TASR too soon 61.87 now

[3/19/2004 1:59:34 PM] [AllWeOwn] hotto when it popped up off 10.70; seemed to me that 10.30 was a pipe dream. Do you really see it going back down there for an opportunity to get in?

[3/19/2004 2:00:01 PM] [Quintus] NUE = HOD . a man of steel
[3/19/2004 2:01:27 PM] [hotto] NUE is nice... STTX for leverage..
[3/19/2004 2:02:02 PM] [Lindahg] Where do I get information as to what delta means?TY
[3/19/2004 2:02:27 PM] [payck] -26 1488/1664 742/1.22
[3/19/2004 2:02:40 PM] [rockin] RIMM - went long - got a partial fill - 557 out of 600 - what the ???
[3/19/2004 2:02:43 PM] [hotto] delta... (from me)... just means The difference between High and Low... of the measuring range.
[3/19/2004 2:03:40 PM] [Quintus] steels -- good point Hotto -- MG 131 component list is interesting -- winners vs. losers/non-movers very apparent on day like this, imo
[3/19/2004 2:05:13 PM] [hotto] Quint.. yes - but often.. will run more on 2nd day... Today is First day... with 2 G+ stocks NUE and STTX
[3/19/2004 2:05:46 PM] [ron643] if delta is 86 it's the same as 86% of 100 shares.....if delta 170 same as you owning 170 shares
[3/19/2004 2:06:10 PM] [Newkid49] out LTON
[3/19/2004 2:07:22 PM] [hotto] AllWe... I just have my methods.. If LTON.. takes out 11.40 before the dip.. then I will adjust my buy point.. ON the theory..that If it is acting stronger than expected... That will likely continue..
[3/19/2004 2:07:52 PM] [AllWeOwn] got it; thanks hotto for taking time to find that comment and reply :)
[3/19/2004 2:07:56 PM] [hotto] ie.. If it skips "normal" PBs... THEN I will adjust my Upside targets Upward..

know go straight to the 'good' steels -- traders like us take up the 2nd tier in a game of catch-up. but the movers on day i take a bit more seriously for LT plays. fwiw

[3/19/2004 2:09:38 PM] [Quintus] day 1

[3/19/2004 2:10:02 PM] [hotto] Quint.. I agree.. I grabbed STTX and NUE.. for now.. easy to sleep on..

[3/19/2004 2:10:21 PM] [TCNut] [3/19/2004 1:49:36 PM] [hotto] delta = approx 10... so $\text{Fib}.382 = 13.50$can you explain how you guesstimated these numbers Hotto?

[3/19/2004 2:11:28 PM] [hotto] When I use the word "delta" it goes back to the Old time use of the word in Calculus... or Trig... delta meaning the "Change"

[3/19/2004 2:11:38 PM] [nemsca] Hotto your cost on NUE?

[3/19/2004 2:11:53 PM] [hotto] I have used that word many times.. in discussing FOPs..

[3/19/2004 2:11:55 PM] [Quintus] just to throw out another sector that looks good -- brewers/distillers -- getting 'ready for summer' ? i am long FMX & getting some CSG soon. fwiw

[3/19/2004 2:12:25 PM] [hotto] in the case of LTON... delta = $\text{HOY} - \text{LOY} = 19.50 - 9.69$ approx 10

[3/19/2004 2:13:00 PM] [hotto] close enough for trading... AND... using 10... makes computing the $\text{FIB}.382$.. simple...

[3/19/2004 2:13:15 PM] [hotto] $10 * (.382) = 3.82$...

[3/19/2004 2:13:35 PM] [hotto] $9.69 + 3.82 = 13.50$... approx

[3/19/2004 2:14:21 PM] [TCNut] nice refresher course! Thanks:8

directly refute Asensio's claims yesterday

[3/19/2004 3:10:13 PM] [hotto] Started with a DOV yesteday..

[3/19/2004 3:12:58 PM] [oddsbettor] Hotto, just toying with my calculator on a FOP for NVEC, it has 3 digits; using Jan high and March low; did I do that right?

[3/19/2004 3:13:05 PM] [syatt] SOXX -2.84%

[3/19/2004 3:13:09 PM] [Quintus] when analyst action comes from Asensio, i consider it different than any big wall street firm. he's always the bear in the party -- but has Ended up being right on most of the "stock promotions" he's covered for lat 10 yrs

[3/19/2004 3:13:41 PM] [syatt] NAZ -13 1272/1712 trin 1.72 vol 1.24B

[3/19/2004 3:13:56 PM] [hotto] Quint.. my earlier NVEC comments.. on the pattern.. are fwiw...

[3/19/2004 3:13:59 PM] [Quintus] hotto i know you like when there's an 'argument' -- NVEC now fits that bill big time !

[3/19/2004 3:14:06 PM] [syatt] put/call (fwiw) .98

[3/19/2004 3:14:44 PM] [hotto] odds... you got it !.. now we just need the right market.

[3/19/2004 3:14:52 PM] [cork1] thank you Lord and Hotto on NVEC:8

[3/19/2004 3:15:08 PM] [oddsbettor] well as Jed Clampett would say, woوو Doggy!

[3/19/2004 3:15:20 PM] [hotto] LTON.. added 10.50

[3/19/2004 3:15:51 PM] [BossFan] NVEC should close around 47 if this volume keeps up

[3/19/2004 3:16:30 PM] [hotto] Exactly , Quint !... Plenty of ammo for the Bears.. Look at how eagerly they shorted yesterday... And the result today !

[3/19/2004 3:17:06 PM] [hotto] Keep in mind... No less than the Forbes Nanotech Letter.. considers NVEC a Buy..

[3/19/2004 3:17:39 PM] [hotto] AND... the CEO from CY is an investor.. Rogers is a "promoter"...

[3/19/2004 3:18:11 PM] [payck] -76 1289/1924 -463/1.58

[3/19/2004 3:18:50 PM] [cork1] Forbes put a buy out on NVEC at 62 just before the dump, I don't have a lot of faith in them

[3/19/2004 3:19:42 PM] [hotto] cork.. They had a buy on NVEC since last year... below 10... I get the letter

[3/19/2004 3:19:43 PM] [JAHman] MRAM will fulfill the expectations of disruptive technology

[3/19/2004 4:33:19 PM] [hotto] NVEC Short 48.88...

[3/19/2004 4:39:21 PM] [Rocket] no shares at ameritrade...

[3/19/2004 4:42:21 PM] [Brooks5] mstrader...what is the purpose of coping charts to HD

[3/19/2004 4:45:15 PM] [OldSeaDog] access to historical data

[3/19/2004 4:45:37 PM] [Brooks5] How far back

[3/19/2004 4:45:55 PM] [OldSeaDog] Y2K

[3/19/2004 4:46:10 PM] [mstrader] TCNet works faster. Chart display, daily and PCF updates work lot faster.

[3/19/2004 4:46:42 PM] [RkyMtnFool] It takes the data on the CD & copies it to the HD, which is much faster.

[3/19/2004 4:46:49 PM] [Brooks5] Maybe I don't understand...I thought the charts were on your hd when you first load tcnet

[3/19/2004 4:47:18 PM] [OldSeaDog] 1985

[3/19/2004 4:47:25 PM] [mstrader] No. they are on CD.

[3/19/2004 4:48:02 PM] [RkyMtnFool] Just the data since the build date of your CD is on HD.

[3/19/2004 4:48:02 PM] [Brooks5] so at night what are you updating

[3/19/2004 4:48:30 PM] [RkyMtnFool] that recent data.

[3/19/2004 4:48:38 PM] [gary12] todays DATA

[3/19/2004 4:48:47 PM] [Brooks5] Is it storing it on the cd

[3/19/2004 4:50:00 PM] [gary12] it's storing it on the Hard Drive

[3/19/2004 4:50:19 PM] [OldSeaDog] historical data is on the CD and you can run with that data FROM the CD or from your hard drive - if you choose not to use either as a data source then your historical data is limited to a few months worth

[3/19/2004 4:50:42 PM] [Brooks5] OK

[3/19/2004 4:50:52 PM] [OldSeaDog] and of course accessing data on a HDD is much faster than on a CD

[3/19/2004 4:51:57 PM] [Brooks5] the charts
[3/19/2004 4:52:31 PM] [Brooks5] Just trying to find out how much memory it takes to load charts to Hd
[3/19/2004 4:53:02 PM] [Brooks5] I'm using a lap top...have plenty of memory now but don't want to load it down
[3/19/2004 4:53:19 PM] [OldSeaDog] you need some 500MB of free disk space
[3/19/2004 4:53:40 PM] [Brooks5] Oh ok ...no problem
[3/19/2004 4:53:49 PM] [mstrader] it is stored in a file under TC2000 folder.
[3/19/2004 4:54:29 PM] [Brooks5] and how often do you have to do this...after each new Cd ?
[3/19/2004 4:56:25 PM] [mstrader] I am told Normally, a new release recognizes if you have hard drive charts. But for recent release I had to do it manually.
[3/19/2004 4:56:49 PM] [Brooks5] Ok thanks for your help everyone
[3/19/2004 4:57:10 PM] [mstrader] I noticed the difference and copied the charts.
[3/19/2004 4:57:54 PM] [Brooks5] And when you access a new chart it pulls it off Hd instead of CD...
[3/19/2004 4:58:06 PM] [RkyMtnFool] If you have the HD space available it will save a lot of time -- well worth the effort.
[3/19/2004 4:58:40 PM] [Brooks5] I do Rky...thanks for all of you answers
[3/19/2004 4:59:27 PM] [OldSeaDog] go to Help - User's Guide and you will get the .pdf user's manual - page 7 will explain about the update process at night
[3/19/2004 4:59:57 PM] [Brooks5] Thanks Old
