[12/3/2003 11:37:49 AM] [lavenderangel] i'm getting very confused, why is NANO scary, it's up 1.40 and so if it PBs, it will go up again.

[12/3/2003 11:38:05 AM] [hotto] NANO.. now a lineup selling at 16.75... goodness

[12/3/2003 11:38:15 AM] [TraderStar] it's not scary for you angel, you're used to holding stocks as they drop [g]

[12/3/2003 11:38:42 AM] [lavenderangel] If it's a good stock, it will SURVIVE!!!!

[12/3/2003 11:38:44 AM] [TraderStar] ..with a large enough trading account you can do that & wait for rebound without tying up funds...

[12/3/2003 11:38:54 AM] [AllWeOwn] pray silently or not til tomoroow

[12/3/2003 11:38:55 AM] [tinaSDtrader] I'm not in that line to sell. There is news on it today.

[12/3/2003 11:39:20 AM] [lavenderangel] me either. isn't the big target 25.00?
[12/3/2003 11:39:20 AM] [Investortrader] There is something called "opportunity cost" in holding a stock noit moving or going down even if it does eventually rebound
[12/3/2003 11:39:22 AM] [atexpal] adv/dec still slowly building 1896/1167
[12/3/2003 11:39:27 AM] [ProfitTrader] SCKT, volume 1/10th of daily - no need to touch it today...
[12/3/2003 11:39:31 AM] [hotto] Put your sell limit out there... for 20 seconds.. If not Hit.. cancel it..
[12/3/2003 11:39:38 AM] [kennray] hotto...one you mentioned couple weeks back WGAT
[12/3/2003 11:39:39 AM] [Sully] OK no more prayers LOL
[12/3/2003 11:40:04 AM] [tinaSDtrader] This 5-min swing not over on NANO, should go to previous 5min peak, which was hotto's PT point.
[12/3/2003 11:40:08 AM] [hotto] Profit... Correct !... Leave it alone... it is just fine... sitting there..
[12/3/2003 11:40:18 AM] [StockStalker] GNSS - long
[12/3/2003 11:40:46 AM] [Sully] :D
[12/3/2003 11:40:52 AM] [DataMiner] Long NGEN
[12/3/2003 11:41:04 AM] [gary12] :D
[12/3/2003 11:41:18 AM] [lavenderangel] TS, don't get me wrong, I don't enjoy the dips but I look and watch. SOme i wait out. And sometimes I worry. Hotto's helping me to worry less and it has never affected mysleep
[12/3/2003 11:41:33 AM] [Gigantus] TERN tgts anyone?
[12/3/2003 11:42:17 AM] [bobn1] S-GRMN 57.00
[12/3/2003 11:42:24 AM] [bearry] does anybody feel NGEN could double
[12/3/2003 11:42:31 AM] [TraderStar] well I'm waiting out IMOS .. at least for a couple more days ...
[12/3/2003 11:42:33 AM] [tinaSDtrader] NANO - even tho I keep an eye on 1mins, 5mins still my main time frame when day trading a stock.
[12/3/2003 11:42:47 AM] [ChuckR]
TERN...s=6.62...s=6.75...s=7.23-7.26...s=7.65...T=8.00
[12/3/2003 11:42:53 AM] [hotto] For the record.. I will add-to ADCT again.. over 2.93..

[12/3/2003 11:43:06 AM] [Gigantus] Thx chuck
[12/3/2003 11:43:09 AM] [CashMan] CVX up nicely @ 76.98 + 1.3 :D
[12/3/2003 11:44:18 AM] [tinaSDtrader] Again, if you can't stand to hold through a stock's swings, maybe trade something else. Panicking or too tight stops not a good way to trade imo.

[12/3/2003 11:44:29 AM] [bearry] go NGEN
[12/3/2003 11:44:53 AM] [hotto] FLML.. was about .80 on that scalp.

[12/3/2003 11:45:06 AM] [beach] 1902/1165
[12/3/2003 11:45:10 AM] [lavenderangel] Tina, I got burnt with too tight stops so often it wasn't funny. I'm much more generous on my stops these days.
[12/3/2003 11:45:46 AM] [TraderStar] yep, setting stops at the right place is scarier, but safer in the long run :)
[12/3/2003 11:45:49 AM] [Newkid49] ASTM=NHOD
[12/3/2003 11:46:10 AM] [tinaSDtrader] It's a fine line on stops, too tight auto out of the trade, will take a lot of losses just to watch the stock go. Too loose, will be giving up too much when goes against you. Takes some experience to figure out.
[12/3/2003 11:46:18 AM] [Mickaz] Beach, did A/D just take a big jump to the positive?
[12/3/2003 11:46:30 AM] [beach] yes

[12/3/2003 1:21:25 PM] [hotto] In my BreakOut scans.. I use 150% of 30 day Avg Volume..

[12/3/2003 1:21:27 PM] [tinaSDtrader] re: TTEC drop earlier - this was only about .35 drop, looks ugly on 5s, but I'm not trading that stock on 5s. I picked it on daily, I only go to 5s to either nail the entry or the exit or scalp. I do not stay down there and watch it. Otherwise the intraday swings can effect my decisions.

[12/3/2003 1:22:02 PM] [tinaSDtrader] I stay on 5s if I am day trading a stock. But if picked on daily, I trade it based on the daily objective.

[12/3/2003 1:22:12 PM] [SeattleSteve] Tina, that is one of the strongest points that I have been taught this year. Thank you for repeating it to drive it home

[12/3/2003 1:22:45 PM] [Oregongeordie] Hotto I have a PCF AVGV30 and have it posted in a column on my charts.

[12/3/2003 1:22:47 PM] [SeattleSteve] That watching the 5 min chart when you are trading on a longer time frame is bad for your bottom line

[12/3/2003 1:22:47 PM] [hotto] On Yahoo finance.. they give 3 month Avg daily volume...

[12/3/2003 1:22:48 PM] [tinaSDtrader] That drop was only about 3%, TTEC can move as much as 8% in a day. Must know the stock's movement of back to the "tight stops syndrome" again.

[12/3/2003 1:22:57 PM] [Stinky] Yes those fives can make you crazy.

[12/3/2003 1:23:11 PM] [tinaSDtrader] yes Seattle Steve. Big lesson - I learned that the hard way years back.

[12/3/2003 1:23:29 PM] [tinaSDtrader] If I pick on daily, I only go lower time frame to assist entry/exit.

[12/3/2003 1:23:38 PM] [EZmoney] CECO dump

[12/3/2003 1:23:50 PM] [lars] Hotto ty

[12/3/2003 1:24:17 PM] [DMut] Hotto, when you have time. Have problem knowing which stocks you have been trading are good to buy on PB. ie Cell. Is this now a buy or was it just a daytrading vehicle a few days ago? I'm not in it now.

[12/3/2003 1:24:22 PM] [tinaSDtrader] If day trading a stock, I use 5s main time frame, look at 1s only on really fast moving or volatile ones. But again, 1s just to help me nail the entry/exit from the main time frame, the 5s. Again, that is for day trading, not my o/n holds.

[12/3/2003 1:25:49 PM] [tinaSDtrader] If TTEC breaks down on the daily time frame, I will exit with a loss. But that is not an issue at this time. That's what stops are for.

[12/3/2003 1:26:10 PM] [tinaSDtrader] or alerts, for disciplined traders.

[12/3/2003 1:52:03 PM] [tinaSDtrader] ITIG - not for everyone. It is about 15% per gridline. Only play where you can handle the stock's typical moves I say.

[12/3/2003 1:53:16 PM] [tinaSDtrader] Might I suggest, before buying a stock, do some math to see how much $ you'd be down on the shares buying if the stock feel to support level. If that makes your heart stop, the stock may be too volatile for you.

[12/3/2003 1:53:36 PM] [armiller] wmt not going to accept mastercard debit card I think

[12/3/2003 6:00:57 PM] [Luigistock] H did you spill your beer ?

[12/3/2003 6:01:07 PM] [erisalaw] Saw your alert. Never did get a pop up.

[12/3/2003 6:01:10 PM] [sisterpractical] hotto - don't know what plan you mean. i'm of the school that does: love your losers: take care of them first; hate your winners - leave them outside to fend for themselves as long as possible

[12/3/2003 6:01:17 PM] [TraderStar] speak, oh great one...

[12/3/2003 6:01:44 PM] [TraderStar] that's cute sister

[12/3/2003 6:02:16 PM] [hotto] I had several open positions... Saw the Top-down picture going sour...

[12/3/2003 6:02:21 PM] [TraderStar] love em and leave em

[12/3/2003 6:03:26 PM] [AllWeOwn] sounds very similar

[12/3/2003 6:03:29 PM] [hotto] so... Int that situation... I have followed the plan.. I have written about..

[12/3/2003 6:03:42 PM] [hotto] on 2 or 3 Saturdays...

[12/3/2003 6:04:10 PM] [hotto] The point was.. Not yet Certain.. that I wanted to bail out..

[12/3/2003 6:04:34 PM] [hotto] But... seeing indication of Top-down.. going bad..

[12/3/2003 6:04:47 PM] [hotto] then... the program is..

[12/3/2003 6:05:00 PM] [erisalaw] I had a "lucky day". Travelling for two days and sold 90% of my positions during the day. Would have been better this AM but began about 1PM and almost a break even. I do not believe any of us are lucky but my trip made me lucky. All account (with some options open and 3 (instead of 55 positions) down only .75%, I am thankful like I was last week!

[12/3/2003 6:05:03 PM] [hotto] 1. Short SPY.. or DIA.. or QQQ

[12/3/2003 6:05:30 PM] [hotto] 2. Begin assessing Longs.. Sell weakest first..

[12/3/2003 6:05:52 PM] [hotto] 3. Watch mkt picture develop...

[12/3/2003 6:06:36 PM] [hotto] continue selling until things improve.. or DON't want to sell any more...

[12/3/2003 10:10:56 PM] [tinaSDtrader] If that % is a high number, like over even 6%, expect some intraday swing. The ones that get 10-15-20% per gridline, even a small pullback can be several % drop.

[12/3/2003 10:13:57 PM] [sisterpractical] centrino is just the capability. not the sign up. you need the hardware to do anything - can have it in a PMC slot instead of inside. the only way to get "only when need" is in internet cafes. there u pay for time. all else, you pay monthly fee

[12/3/2003 10:13:58 PM] [tinaSDtrader] I take hotto's picks and make sure I can apply my trading style to them. If I can't, I just don't trade it. Many of them I can trade, and do. Or I just have to wait for the stock to position right for me, then can join him.

[12/3/2003 10:13:59 PM] [techlord61] try VRYA no vol 20k a day I was stack on this for two tays

[12/3/2003 10:14:51 PM] [TrillionDolarMan] Wait? You mean be PATIENT and wait for your set up, tina?....CNBC never mentions anything about that...??? :o

[12/3/2003 10:14:59 PM] [tinaSDtrader] I have made plenty of $ on hotto's picks. I'm just more conservative a trader than many, so I'm not always in same time/price. But nonetheless, I do get to play on most of them.

[12/3/2003 10:16:25 PM] [sggin1] anyone know about moble wireless, is it like having a cellphone in the computer?

[12/3/2003 10:16:28 PM] [techlord61] you have switch to SIAS from default

[12/3/2003 10:17:09 PM] [techlord61] and then you can do some damage in the caffee

[12/3/2003 10:17:12 PM] [sisterpractical] mobile wireless has similarities to cell phone, but you pay for another separate service. T-mobile has some combo plans, but their overall coverage isn't that great

[12/3/2003 10:17:15 PM] [TrillionDolarMan] How's the SECURITY on that network, annkath? Just dumped McAfee firewall here for BLACK ICE...and the problem I had with TCNet notes for 18 months went away. [12/3/2003 10:20:01 PM] [sggin1] the best firewall seems to be a router

[12/3/2003 10:20:10 PM] [tinaSDtrader] router is a great firewall

[12/3/2003 10:21:32 PM] [TrillionDolarMan] Correct, sggin/tina....XView.com has DOUBLE router that will take both your DSL and cable...if you have both....router is best...didn't want to mess with it on this machine....TDM will personally DRIVE ON tech secotor next year with FULL MONTY trading platform network purchases...

[12/3/2003 10:22:00 PM] [techlord61] not this one they sale in BEST BUY

[12/3/2003 10:22:13 PM] [HamFon] Linksys here - inexpensive, does 802.11b wireless too... works fine - and hard firewall. I also use ZoneAlarm.

[12/3/2003 10:22:48 PM] [TeachMe] if anyone knows abt a laptop that will support dual monitor i'd like to hear..i travel so this wud be ideal for me

[12/3/2003 10:22:51 PM] [sggin1] I have a linux box I occasionally set up as a router but it's a lot of work

[12/3/2003 10:22:52 PM] [TrillionDolarMan] Right, tina..had LINKSYS in my hand last night...$99. BLACK ICE $15....grabbed Black Ice....LINKSYS was bundled with Norton....and I didn't want to mess with Norton, having just got done with McAfee.....I've heard Norton conflicts with one or two of my apps...but not sure...didn't want to find out....

[12/3/2003 10:23:19 PM] [techlord61] but they interrfeer some times whit wirlees phons ...

[12/3/2003 10:23:55 PM] [techlord61] yes
[12/3/2003 10:23:59 PM] [ChuckR] Dell Inspirion 8100 here...2 monitors
[12/3/2003 10:24:00 PM] [HamFon] TDM - I'd recommend ZoneAlarm over BlackIce - I used both, and BlackIce just was not as solid - check out grc.com for some tests - you should be totally Invisible (Stealth mode).
[12/3/2003 10:24:03 PM] [sisterpractical] easy to fix the interference problem - just chanage the channel. channel's 1,6, 11 have no overlap. phone's often on 11, so change wifi to 1 and everything if fine
[12/3/2003 10:24:32 PM] [techlord61] you have to limited windows port to just few

[12/3/2003 10:25:03 PM] [TrillionDolarMan] I think you're right, Ham...my man RJM was telling me same....ZONE ALARM on my favorite places...but let me tell you what an improvement BI is over McAfee!!
[12/3/2003 10:25:52 PM] [houcpl] I use BlackIce in the corporate world, Had a lot of problems with it.
[12/3/2003 10:25:55 PM] [TrillionDolarMan] In fact, Black Ice tells me some teenager just put down his picture magazine long enogh to be scanning my system right now...little so and so...=o
[12/3/2003 10:26:07 PM] [HamFon] Also, a hardware router doesn't necessarily stop traffic on a per-program basis, usually just on a per-port. So, if you're allowing a port, a "bad" program can probably use it. I have ZoneAlarm set up to ask me EVERY time a new program tries to use the net. Very secure.
[12/3/2003 10:26:08 PM] [sggin1] to be safe I onluy trade on this computer and I dont surf the web with it

[12/3/2003 10:30:11 PM] [TrillionDolarMan] That' the IP that BLACK ICE says scanned me just now...10:29 PM
[12/3/2003 10:30:40 PM] [sggin1] there are diagnostic reasons for pingging, etc

[12/3/2003 10:30:57 PM] [HamFon] a trace route to that IP sure turns up weird results - seems to get stuck in a DNS lookup loop between two IP addresses... strange.
