[2/24/2004 12:14:13 PM] [hotto] Of course... that will be useful.. in arming the debt bomb.. for 2005 or 2006... Variable rates.. At least the S&L industry will have a bit more protection..

[2/24/2004 12:19:35 PM] [Cag] Middle class will not be around for long. It will be rich and poor folks. Poor don't have debt, rich don't need to worry about debt. But the middle class is up to it's ears in debt buying $800k 1500sq foot homes, then pulling equity out for SUV's etc. Not too mention the middle class jobs are leaving our country. Should be a wild decade IMHO.;
