[4/7/2004 8:53:15 AM] <Investortrader> For you NGEN holders ... we've seen this before, secondary offerings bringing the price down ... and around that offering price becomes support for the next leg up

[4/7/2004 8:54:22 AM] <Johnster> I had same thought, IT...guess that calls for averaging down by buying dips...

ClubHome

[4/7/2004 8:54:52 AM] <Investortrader> Right Johnster, as long as you are still at a comfortable level in it
[4/7/2004 8:55:04 AM] <Johnster> I'm placing buy order for NGEN around 8.60...
[4/7/2004 8:55:50 AM] <Johnster> Have some from yesterday at 9.56...average around 9 should be ok...
[4/7/2004 8:55:55 AM] <Investortrader> It may not get down that far, or it may go a little lower than that, we've seen both happen
[4/7/2004 8:56:26 AM] <adcum> jonhster the buonce will be to that level about for ngen
[4/7/2004 8:56:27 AM] <streetwalker> IT; thnx for that on NGEN; addto then??
[4/7/2004 8:56:50 AM] <wjonass2> malealltrash do you have another xeda for today? B)
[4/7/2004 8:57:12 AM] <Investortrader> I would think so streetwalker .. with a secondary that means strong hands are holding those shares
[4/7/2004 8:57:53 AM] <acmetrader> They added on 150K shares at the last minute as well
[4/7/2004 8:57:58 AM] <streetwalker> IT; appreciate it.
[4/7/2004 8:58:04 AM] <america> gm guys and gals. gee, ngen sure wiped the smile off lots of faces. yich.
[4/7/2004 8:58:07 AM] <Investortrader> Welcome :)
[4/7/2004 8:58:21 AM] <VJnet> gm usa
[4/7/2004 8:58:27 AM] <america> hi vj
[4/7/2004 8:58:34 AM] <Investortrader> acme, it was oversubscribed so they added shares? That's good news, I didn't read the whole article as I don't own it here
[4/7/2004 8:58:49 AM] <hotto> NGEN.. The dilution is about 3.8%.. minor. NGEN has $ 32.55 M cash. No big need for cash. This will improve balance sheet AND help stabilize the volatile stock... A Pvt placement at $8.60.
[4/7/2004 8:58:54 AM] <Investortrader> Hi america :)
[4/7/2004 8:59:03 AM] <america> gm IT

[4/7/2004 9:00:03 AM] <dpg45> gm Hottto
[4/7/2004 9:00:09 AM] <hotto> This is the smallest dilution we have seen in any Stock offering.. in a while.

[4/7/2004 9:03:50 AM] <acmetrader> 8.61? ;)
[4/7/2004 9:04:11 AM] <Investortrader> Between here and the secondary offering price somewhere, want to see the price action during the market
[4/7/2004 9:04:11 AM] <Oregongeordie> Harley, IDNX is at 7.23/7.37 - last 7.37

[4/7/2004 9:05:23 AM] <tobydad> IT, i'm already in NGEN at 9.20; considering buying more at 8.70...your thoughts?

[4/7/2004 9:05:34 AM] <america> gm enzo. yes, afraid lots of us are in the ngen boat today.

[4/7/2004 9:05:46 AM] <Investortrader> Sounds good tobydad

[4/7/2004 9:05:51 AM] <hotto> why "afraid" ?

[4/7/2004 9:05:54 AM] <tobydad> ty

[4/7/2004 9:06:14 AM] <Investortrader> Good point Hotto, they don't always go all the way down to the secondary price

[4/7/2004 9:06:30 AM] <dagwood> NGEN will be back....hot sector, "headline stock"... do not give it away

[4/7/2004 9:06:50 AM] <america> sorry hotto. just a figure of speech. actually, i'm not afraid. this is interesting. hasn't happened to me before. so you can see how green i am. lol

[4/7/2004 9:08:19 AM] <Harley> THANKS Geordie

[4/7/2004 9:08:20 AM] <america> yes, but IT, remember not to set your price too low, or you won't be on the ngen winning bandwagon with the rest of us. lol

[4/7/2004 9:08:28 AM] <Oregongeorde> yw

[4/7/2004 9:08:34 AM] <Investortrader> That's true america!

[4/7/2004 9:08:39 AM] <america> lol

[4/7/2004 9:08:40 AM] <hotto> We went through all the details on a Pvt placement in EGHT ... last October. Priced at $2.85 as I recall. Stock never traded below 3. then ran to over 7 in next 2 weeks..

[4/7/2004 9:09:22 AM] <mstrader> ThinkEquity sets target of $137 for RIMM

[4/7/2004 9:09:36 AM] <hotto> The key factors are the Pricing.. ANd... the Dilution

[4/7/2004 9:09:51 AM] <KauaiDave> GMB)

[4/7/2004 9:09:56 AM] <Investortrader> After the big vol BO on 4/1, notice where the pb low is from there

[4/7/2004 9:09:59 AM] <hotto> In this case.. dilution is under 4%.. So... minor..

[4/7/2004 9:10:22 AM] <streetwalker> hotto, tried to join "hottoworks" club using assigned password,,,did'nt work,,,do i need additional pw?

[4/7/2004 9:10:28 AM] <Investortrader> The pb low was 8.62 ... secondary offering at 8.60 ...

[4/7/2004 9:11:12 AM] <Investortrader> Also note the swing high on 3/18 was 8.59 ... lots of chart points for good support around that price

[4/7/2004 9:11:21 AM] <hotto> Good observation IT.. This very small offering is being done to stabilize the volatility... on NGEN.

[4/7/2004 9:11:51 AM] <america> thanks hotto. thanks IT\

[4/7/2004 11:55:03 AM] <Quintus> on 90-100 rule -- 100 only 11% away from 90 -- any semi-volatile stock can 'randomly' make such moves -- a function of probability imho -- probably a "90-80" rule for stocks that hit 90 from the top side

[4/7/2004 11:55:05 AM] <StockStalker> gonna take some TASR off the table jsut below 100

[4/7/2004 4:09:53 PM] <Fannye> USHG sorry I reported trading over 4K should have been 4M, When fully developed, this technology will also have the capability of stunning personnel, in a manner similar to a common TASER? -- but in a wireless manner and over much longer distances. Ionatron has already commenced the production of a limited number of prototypes for customer evaluation and testing within the customers' specific environments and missions. Ionatron believes its technology is superior to many of the other Directed Energy technologies in development, due to its low average power requirements and potential compact size.

[4/7/2004 10:12:11 PM] <IncaKid> Please review: QDEL and IDNx
[4/7/2004 10:14:06 PM] <Investortrader> Hi everyone :)
[4/7/2004 10:14:24 PM] <cobralso> Hello
[4/7/2004 10:14:26 PM] <Investortrader> First stock I'd like to cover tonight is WEBM, one I bought today
[4/7/2004 10:14:30 PM] <Tilt> Hi IT
[4/7/2004 10:14:48 PM] <RickW> Hi IT :)
[4/7/2004 10:14:55 PM] <Investortrader> Hotto brought this one to our attention today
[4/7/2004 10:15:18 PM] <Investortrader> The first thing I'd like to point out is the OBV divergence at the dbl btm it made
[4/7/2004 10:15:36 PM] <Investortrader> The first btm on 3/15 was the OBV low
[4/7/2004 10:16:09 PM] <Investortrader> While the price low on 3/22 had a much higher OBV at the time
[4/7/2004 10:16:18 PM] <cobralso> IT share!
[4/7/2004 10:16:23 PM] <Investortrader> Oops, sorry
[4/7/2004 10:17:06 PM] <Investortrader> So you can see the positive OBV divergence between those two days, 3/15 and 3/22 as the stock was bottoming
[4/7/2004 10:17:49 PM] <Investortrader> That is something to look for if you are interested in a stock that is in a downtrend as it's making new lows ... watch the OBV
[4/7/2004 10:18:40 PM] <Investortrader> As it turned up off that second bottom, once

ClubHome

it broke thru the middle BB that became support as it rested for a few days
[4/7/2004 10:19:05 PM] <Investortrader> Then on 4/2 that big vol up day with nice price range
[4/7/2004 10:19:31 PM] <Investortrader> Now we've had those 3 pb days that we see a lot
[4/7/2004 10:19:40 PM] <Investortrader> All on lower vol
[4/7/2004 10:20:02 PM] <caldoc> Hi IT.
[4/7/2004 10:20:15 PM] <Investortrader> I put in order in at 10.05 after I looked at the chart, that's where the 50sma is ... and it got filled
[4/7/2004 10:20:46 PM] <Investortrader> So we've got OBV confirming the new highs, nice low vol pb down to the 50sma ... after a good dbl btm formation
[4/7/2004 10:21:34 PM] <Investortrader> Any questions on WEBM?
[4/7/2004 10:21:53 PM] <ChuckR> MAPX.....OBV
[4/7/2004 10:22:02 PM] <daniel329> do you wait for price above sma50 to enter?
[4/7/2004 10:22:17 PM] <AtlantaRob> are you expecting another advance, or bounce off the 50?
[4/7/2004 10:22:34 PM] <Investortrader> Not always daniel, there are lots of patterns I will buy ... this is one of them
[4/7/2004 10:22:47 PM] <Tilt> off topic, how do I pick out the individual dates, other than counting?
[4/7/2004 10:23:13 PM] <Investortrader> Usually a 3 day pb is all that's needed Rob ... with it closing off the lows today and with the market news AH it will probably head up from here
[4/7/2004 10:23:14 PM] <ChuckR> use period key
[4/7/2004 10:23:41 PM] <AtlantaRob> yes today looked like it could be turning that's why I asked, TY
[4/7/2004 10:23:48 PM] <Tilt> TY Chuck
[4/7/2004 10:24:02 PM] <Investortrader> Welcome :)
[4/7/2004 10:24:15 PM] <Investortrader> On to CVTX ...
[4/7/2004 10:24:55 PM] <cobralso> period key dosen't work on shared charts
[4/7/2004 10:25:01 PM] <Investortrader> I'm going to shorten this chart up a bit to get rid of those huge vol spikes for a minute so we can compare the recent vol better
[4/7/2004 10:25:15 PM] <cobralso> :)
[4/7/2004 10:25:25 PM] <daniel329> copy the template and put it as your main chart..
[4/7/2004 10:26:06 PM] <Investortrader> We can see most recently the up days have been on a bit better vol than the down days
[4/7/2004 10:26:31 PM] <Investortrader> Back to a slightly bigger picture
[4/7/2004 10:26:51 PM] <Investortrader> I like that this one has broken out over the 50sma on some better vol
[4/7/2004 10:27:40 PM] <Investortrader> It made a little dbl btm in March, then ran right up to the 50sma and consolidated there ... notice the OBV was already over it's 50sma and was holding above it
[4/7/2004 10:29:34 PM] <Investortrader> Also note the ledge made in late Feb to early March ... is right above where prices consolidated here before this BO ... that's another thing to look at when looking for resistance on a chart ... an area where prices moved sideways in a narrow range
[4/7/2004 10:31:12 PM] <Investortrader> And the 50sma was playing a role there also, in the beginning of March, trying to hold prices .. and when they fell through it got ugly ... The 50sma can be called your last line in the sand if you are long many times
[4/7/2004 10:31:41 PM] <Investortrader> Now it looks good as it's broken above the 50sma on some vol
[4/7/2004 10:32:11 PM] <Investortrader> Any questions on CVTX?
[4/7/2004 10:32:19 PM] <daniel329> does the down gap in Dec affect your views on this one?

[4/7/2004 10:32:55 PM] <Investortrader> Not anymore it doesn't ...

[4/7/2004 10:33:08 PM] <Investortrader> For one it's been filled already

[4/7/2004 10:33:11 PM] <AtlantaRob> What kind of play would this be, in terms of entry, because I don't really play BO's that much, usually PB's

[4/7/2004 10:33:37 PM] <Investortrader> And secondly since I'm a shorter term trader I'll use chart points that are closer to the present

[4/7/2004 10:34:27 PM] <Investortrader> With the good news out today might be a special situation .. in general you could play it two ways to enter

[4/7/2004 10:35:10 PM] <Investortrader> Good news with some earnings, not with this stock but lots were waiting on YHOO as Hotto mentioned

[4/7/2004 10:35:26 PM] <Investortrader> In general, you could either look to buy a pb to near the 50sma

[4/7/2004 10:35:36 PM] <Investortrader> But sometimes that doesn't happen

[4/7/2004 10:35:59 PM] <Investortrader> Could look for halfway down today's candle, which wouldn't be all the way to the 50sma

[4/7/2004 10:36:26 PM] <Investortrader> Could look at a 5 minute chart looking for an area of support, which I do a lot (along with the 50sma thing)

[4/7/2004 10:36:35 PM] <Investortrader> OR

[4/7/2004 10:36:47 PM] <Investortrader> Many times there will be no pb

[4/7/2004 10:36:54 PM] <Investortrader> Or none of any significance

[4/7/2004 10:37:01 PM] <SkyDragon> IT, could you look at QDEL tonight.

[4/7/2004 10:37:06 PM] <AtlantaRob> That's what I'm always conflicted with on BO plays because really strong stocks don't pull back, and you also don't want to chase it so...

[4/7/2004 10:37:14 PM] <Investortrader> So if you see it open unch or up a little ... and continue up on vol, buy it then

[4/7/2004 10:37:24 PM] <AtlantaRob> Ok ty

[4/7/2004 10:37:45 PM] <Investortrader> And use a bit under the day's open as a stop loss so you don't get caught in any nasty reversal

[4/7/2004 10:38:07 PM] <Investortrader> If you do get stopped out, usually that means a test of the 50sma is coming so you could try again there

[4/7/2004 10:38:45 PM] <Investortrader> But that will catch those that don't give any pb ... and have a fairly safe level of risk

[4/7/2004 10:38:52 PM] <Golfermary> Unless I missed it - could you discuss FVCX? Please

[4/7/2004 10:38:59 PM] <AtlantaRob> very good idea, ty vm

[4/7/2004 10:39:07 PM] <Investortrader> Any questions on CVTX?

[4/7/2004 10:39:30 PM] <Investortrader> On to QDEL

[4/7/2004 10:39:42 PM] <Investortrader> This one is down significantly in AH

[4/7/2004 10:39:44 PM] <REB2186> IT, do you share your trading history? It would help enormously to be able to review your buy/sell history. Sorry if I'm asking too much.j

[4/7/2004 10:40:55 PM] <Investortrader> I post buys and sells r/t mostly in channel .. and there is an in-depth discussion of ITIG where I cover the chart, where I bought and sold and why, and some riding of the upper BB theory

[4/7/2004 10:41:44 PM] <Investortrader> It's under "Boards" then "General Discussion" after clicking up top on "Clubs"

[4/7/2004 10:41:51 PM] <Investortrader> In Hotto club

[4/7/2004 10:42:08 PM] <daniel329> very good... i read it yesterday...

[4/7/2004 10:42:10 PM] <Investortrader> I cover a few months of trading in it

[4/7/2004 10:42:23 PM] <Investortrader> Or a couple months, something like that

[4/7/2004 10:43:01 PM] <Investortrader> QDEL last in AH is 6.12

[4/7/2004 10:43:21 PM] <Investortrader> So we're right back down to the recent lows almost

[4/7/2004 10:43:54 PM] <Investortrader> They lowered guidance, so now it's a G-stock
[4/7/2004 10:44:50 PM] <Investortrader> It's been in a downtrend with OBV making new lows with price
[4/7/2004 10:45:10 PM] <Investortrader> It did have a nice reversal pattern a few days ago
[4/7/2004 10:45:34 PM] <Investortrader> But the news pretty much over rides everything
[4/7/2004 10:47:48 PM] <mace> XRIT
[4/7/2004 10:48:18 PM] <Investortrader> It also needed another upday to get the OBV on this run higher than where it was the last swing high on 3/29 ... didn't happen
[4/7/2004 10:49:11 PM] <Investortrader> It may get some reprieve with tomorrow expected to be an up day in the markets overall ... but I expect it will break to new lows because of the news
[4/7/2004 10:49:53 PM] <mace> NTOP
[4/7/2004 10:49:54 PM] <Investortrader> So I'd be a seller on any bounce tomorrow if I owned it
[4/7/2004 10:50:01 PM] <CashMan> Aa good shorting stock on a up tick then maybe just thinking on QDEL
[4/7/2004 10:50:39 PM] <Investortrader> Could be CashMan .. I don't short much myself
[4/7/2004 10:50:58 PM] <Investortrader> And I'd rather look for longs in an up market
[4/7/2004 10:51:08 PM] <Investortrader> And short during corrections
[4/7/2004 10:51:27 PM] <Investortrader> Any questions on QDEL?
[4/7/2004 10:51:44 PM] <mace> OSUR
[4/7/2004 10:51:53 PM] <bravotrader> QDEL has good fundamentals (if earning estimates are meaningful 23c this year and 45c or 48c next year)
[4/7/2004 10:51:59 PM] <AtlantaRob> mace, you are demanding :)
[4/7/2004 10:52:10 PM] <SkyDragon> The 6.02 low is right on the 500sma and the 1000sma is right below it. Maybe be enough to bounce for an exit opp.
[4/7/2004 10:52:20 PM] <Investortrader> They guided lower bravotrader ... they will be punished for that
[4/7/2004 10:52:40 PM] <Investortrader> Good eye SkyDragon
[4/7/2004 10:52:48 PM] <bravotrader> I know and me with them:(
[4/7/2004 10:53:04 PM] <Investortrader> Oops :(
[4/7/2004 10:53:09 PM] <ChuckR> out to the wood shed
[4/7/2004 10:53:14 PM] <Investortrader> On to IDNX ...
[4/7/2004 10:53:24 PM] <SkyDragon> Me too.:P
[4/7/2004 10:53:41 PM] <Investortrader> Hard not to like this chart
[4/7/2004 10:53:53 PM] <Investortrader> Had a nice long consolidation
[4/7/2004 10:54:21 PM] <caldoc> IT, GILTF when you can, please.
[4/7/2004 10:54:36 PM] <Investortrader> Started to show some life in March with some vol coming in
[4/7/2004 10:55:15 PM] <Investortrader> BO on good vol on 4/5 then gapped up on huge vol the next day
[4/7/2004 10:55:49 PM] <Investortrader> Came right down to the upper BB today and bounced right back up
[4/7/2004 10:56:11 PM] <Investortrader> Hotto really likes this one
[4/7/2004 10:56:58 PM] <Investortrader> With all the volume coming in, looks like it could ride the upper BB here for a bit
[4/7/2004 10:57:19 PM] <Investortrader> I wouldn't be selling here yet
[4/7/2004 10:57:44 PM] <Investortrader> OBV is in orbit, get out your telescopes
[4/7/2004 10:58:38 PM] <Investortrader> This one also look to be a volatile ride, so scalpers should also do well with it
[4/7/2004 10:59:05 PM] <Investortrader> Any questions on IDNX?

[4/7/2004 10:59:37 PM] <Investortrader> Welcome IncaKid :)
[4/7/2004 10:59:44 PM] <Investortrader> On to MAPX ...
[4/7/2004 11:00:40 PM] <Investortrader> Talk about some accumulation going on, just look at that OBV!
[4/7/2004 11:01:14 PM] <Investortrader> I've been watching this one for a few days now, waiting to buy a BO
[4/7/2004 11:01:54 PM] <Investortrader> And I'll be watching it tomorrow
[4/7/2004 11:02:07 PM] <mace> NR7 too today
[4/7/2004 11:02:25 PM] <ChuckR> MAPX held a .07 range today
[4/7/2004 11:02:51 PM] <daniel329> volume big with little change in price..
[4/7/2004 11:02:54 PM] <Investortrader> Once the sellers are gone in it, it could get nice
[4/7/2004 11:03:44 PM] <Investortrader> When you see that, lots of vol and not much price change ... many times that's signals a trend reversal ... it's one of the things I look for at tops also
[4/7/2004 11:04:30 PM] <Fern> morning star pattern on weekly chart
[4/7/2004 11:05:53 PM] <Investortrader> Any questions on MAPX?
[4/7/2004 11:06:08 PM] <DMut> why lots of vol and little price change? Isn't that churning?
[4/7/2004 11:06:42 PM] <Fern> in cases like this, are the bo exagerated due to the accumulation
[4/7/2004 11:07:07 PM] <Investortrader> Usually lots of shares trade at tops and bottoms ... and it is showing a big battle between the bulls and the bears ...
[4/7/2004 11:07:41 PM] <Investortrader> Whoever wins ... the other side is worn out, all gone, defeated ... thus the top/bottom is made and mostly only one side is left
[4/7/2004 11:08:08 PM] <Investortrader> Because so many shares have traded ... anyone who wanted to sell it down here will have [4/7/2004 11:08:20 PM] <Investortrader> BUT
[4/7/2004 11:08:30 PM] <Investortrader> I wait for a BO, so I know who the winner is
[4/7/2004 11:09:00 PM] <Investortrader> Right Fern, the BO's can be really nice sometimes because of all the accumulation, along with all the sellers having been exhausted
[4/7/2004 11:09:14 PM] <Nipsy331> Hi IT...Where would call the break out here, on MAPX?
[4/7/2004 11:09:42 PM] <mace> would you wait for BTBO 8.40
[4/7/2004 11:10:03 PM] <Investortrader> The most aggressive BO play would be a any BO, it's been making lower highs every day for a few days here
[4/7/2004 11:10:13 PM] <Investortrader> Good eye mace, that would be the safest BO point
[4/7/2004 11:10:19 PM] <AtlantaRob> Looks like a sym. triangle
[4/7/2004 11:10:56 PM] <DMut> staying under 20ma
[4/7/2004 11:11:08 PM] <Investortrader> Could use the middle BB, the 20sma, as your BO also I always go a few cents above the BO price
[4/7/2004 11:11:40 PM] <AtlantaRob> you think using yesterdays high would be good entry?
[4/7/2004 11:11:55 PM] <AtlantaRob> like .05-.10 above?
[4/7/2004 11:12:05 PM] <ChuckR> 8.28
[4/7/2004 11:12:30 PM] <Investortrader> That would work
[4/7/2004 11:13:04 PM] <ChuckR> in at 8.16
[4/7/2004 11:13:23 PM] <AtlantaRob> Chuck are you averaging down :D
[4/7/2004 11:13:43 PM] <Investortrader> Some have already bot in anticipation of the BO too
[4/7/2004 11:13:47 PM] <ChuckR> maybe early...will see....ave down NO

[4/7/2004 11:16:35 PM] <ChuckR> thanks IT
[4/7/2004 11:16:40 PM] <Investortrader> If I decided to buy it before the BO, I'd be looking at a few cents under the low in March for a stop loss
[4/7/2004 11:16:55 PM] <Investortrader> Welcome Chuck :)
[4/7/2004 11:17:16 PM] <daniel329> 7.78 as stop?
[4/7/2004 11:17:17 PM] <Investortrader> Then move that stop up after the BO to just under the BO area
[4/7/2004 11:17:42 PM] <Investortrader> I always go a few cents under daniel
[4/7/2004 11:17:50 PM] <daniel329> thanks IT..
[4/7/2004 11:17:58 PM] <Investortrader> Welcome daniel :)
[4/7/2004 11:18:12 PM] <Investortrader> On to FVCX ...
[4/7/2004 11:18:26 PM] <daniel329> once u enter into a trade.. u have a target u look for? and u use trailing stops?
[4/7/2004 11:19:17 PM] <Investortrader> I always use stops ... I don't trail if you mean using a %-age, I use chart points, either underneath for stop losses, or above near targets of resistance
[4/7/2004 11:19:32 PM] <bbmd> IT OBV to day did not catch up with price,do U R/O a bearish flag on down trend ?? RSI has a bearish flat.
[4/7/2004 11:20:21 PM] <Investortrader> bbmd, on which stock?
[4/7/2004 11:20:34 PM] <bbmd> MAPX
[4/7/2004 11:20:44 PM] <Investortrader> OBV is wonderful on MAPX
[4/7/2004 11:21:15 PM] <bbmd> I am with U,but besides OBV.
[4/7/2004 11:21:28 PM] <Investortrader> I don't really use RSI
[4/7/2004 11:22:32 PM] <bbmd> Past 4 days price has minimal uptrend,but OBV is not confirming.
[4/7/2004 11:22:35 PM] <Investortrader> I like the MAPX chart, if it breaks out no worries at all .. though I could always be wrong ;)
[4/7/2004 11:23:08 PM] <Investortrader> The price range has been very narrow recently
[4/7/2004 11:23:18 PM] <bbmd> The problem is I like it too.
[4/7/2004 11:23:25 PM] <Investortrader> And OBV hasn't broken it's trend
[4/7/2004 11:23:25 PM] <ChuckR> yes sir....chart grabbed my attention
[4/7/2004 11:23:47 PM] <daniel329> where did u get this from? what scan?
[4/7/2004 11:24:09 PM] <Investortrader> OBV can be more volatile than price, gotta look at the big picture on it
[4/7/2004 11:24:21 PM] <AtlantaRob> jfwiw I've heard that when prices creep up like that it is supposed to be a very bullish sign
[4/7/2004 11:24:24 PM] <ChuckR> hotto mentioned it
[4/7/2004 11:24:26 PM] <Investortrader> Someone asked me to cover it daniel, quite a few own it here
[4/7/2004 11:24:28 PM] <bbmd> Thx.
[4/7/2004 11:24:34 PM] <Investortrader> Welcome bbmd :)
[4/7/2004 11:24:45 PM] <Investortrader> I think Oz found it a few days ago
[4/7/2004 11:24:56 PM] <Investortrader> But not sure, might have been Hotto
[4/7/2004 11:25:07 PM] <Investortrader> Or both!

[4/7/2004 11:25:26 PM] <daniel329> thnks
[4/7/2004 11:26:27 PM] <Investortrader> Big news, big gap, big volume .. came back to the upper BB today on lower vol

ClubHome

[4/7/2004 11:26:41 PM] <Investortrader> These I usually stay away from ...
[4/7/2004 11:27:07 PM] <Investortrader> Though here I can see some prior chart points for support besides just the upper BB
[4/7/2004 11:27:27 PM] <Investortrader> Looking back in Jan you can see it made a dbl top right around this area
[4/7/2004 11:28:03 PM] <Investortrader> The reason I usually stay away from ones like this is because where would a logical place be to put a stop? But here I see a difference with those other chart points
[4/7/2004 11:29:40 PM] <Investortrader> So using the lower high in Jan of 2.97, you could use a bit under that as a stop and be buying around here
[4/7/2004 11:29:54 PM] <Investortrader> Notice how I look at trading
[4/7/2004 11:30:10 PM] <Investortrader> I'm looking from the loss end first, not the profit end
[4/7/2004 11:30:54 PM] <AtlantaRob> you said you also use intraday support/resistance too right? For stops and whatnot
[4/7/2004 11:30:55 PM] <Investortrader> After finding if the risk is suitable ... then I look at the other side of the coin
[4/7/2004 11:31:37 PM] <Investortrader> Rob, if I'm interested in buying a stock the next day, I'll look at the 5 minute chart of today's prices to look for possible pb support areas to buy
[4/7/2004 11:32:00 PM] <Golfermary> Thank you IT - past dinner time! Am getting come hither looks!
[4/7/2004 11:32:12 PM] <Investortrader> Have a good meal mary :)
[4/7/2004 11:32:41 PM] <Nipsy331> IT, if you get a chance: QUIN in queue
[4/7/2004 11:33:00 PM] <AtlantaRob> So only for entry? Maybe that's part of my problem:(
[4/7/2004 11:33:04 PM] <Investortrader> Yesterday when this one was mentioned I passed on it as support was too far away and I like to ruthlessly cut losses so don't like to hold through much of a pb
[4/7/2004 11:33:30 PM] <Investortrader> Today, it looks like a good place here
[4/7/2004 11:33:52 PM] <Investortrader> Because of the risk/reward now
[4/7/2004 11:34:28 PM] <Investortrader> Also ... I don't daytrade, I'm sure lots made money yesterday on it ... just didn't fit into my style of trading
[4/7/2004 11:35:26 PM] <Investortrader> Rob, for exit, I have my stop loss from the daily chart
[4/7/2004 11:36:17 PM] <Investortrader> As I'm buying support, like if I wanted to buy FVCX, support is right around here .. so if it breaks I would be out
[4/7/2004 11:36:45 PM] <Investortrader> Any questions on FVCX?
[4/7/2004 11:36:48 PM] <AtlantaRob> Oh yeah, to stick with the same time frame, right?
[4/7/2004 11:37:30 PM] <Investortrader> you need to use the timeframe that fits your trading time frame, daytraders wouldn't use weekly charts much, I don't use intraday charts much
[4/7/2004 11:37:58 PM] <daniel329> do you use other indicators like macd? or tsv? for making/confirming your trading decisions?
[4/7/2004 11:38:38 PM] <Investortrader> I have a faster MACD Histogram I use sometimes for confirmation
[4/7/2004 11:39:01 PM] <Investortrader> But that's a whole nother can of worms!
[4/7/2004 11:39:16 PM] <Investortrader> On to XRIT ...

[4/7/2004 11:39:43 PM] <Investortrader> Thank you bmw :8
[4/7/2004 11:40:42 PM] <Investortrader> This one doesn't really have enough volume ... as technical analysis measures the emotions of the buyers and sellers, you need volume for it to work

[4/7/2004 11:41:31 PM] <Investortrader> On to NTOP
[4/7/2004 11:42:31 PM] <Investortrader> This one looks a bit better than so-so
[4/7/2004 11:42:53 PM] <AtlantaRob> IT what's your min. req. for volume?
[4/7/2004 11:43:32 PM] <Investortrader> We had a weak divergence at the bottom ... while price and OBV both made lower lows the second lows were both within the BB's ... and that's a weaker divergence than if the OBV made a higher low the second time
[4/7/2004 11:43:50 PM] <Investortrader> I like to see at least 100,000 and preferably twice that
[4/7/2004 11:44:49 PM] <Investortrader> OBV is trending up now, and prices did have a minor BO, probably only minor because of the weak divergences
[4/7/2004 11:45:43 PM] <Investortrader> I would think there are better charts to trade than this one
[4/7/2004 11:46:13 PM] <Investortrader> Any questions on NTOP?
[4/7/2004 11:46:58 PM] <Investortrader> On to OSUR ...
[4/7/2004 11:47:41 PM] <Investortrader> This is one reason why I don't usually trades charts with that pattern mentioned earlier
[4/7/2004 11:48:04 PM] <parkwaypet> Just got here IT and if possible lookd at MSPD or NTGR ty
[4/7/2004 11:48:45 PM] <Investortrader> After the big vol run-up, it's only gone sideways to down ... though it could have been daytraded some of those days
[4/7/2004 11:49:13 PM] <Investortrader> Today's action I don't like in it
[4/7/2004 11:49:22 PM] <Investortrader> Hi parkwaypet :)
[4/7/2004 11:49:42 PM] <Investortrader> Broke down under the recent lows
[4/7/2004 11:49:50 PM] <Investortrader> On higher vol
[4/7/2004 11:50:48 PM] <Investortrader> I'm not interested in buying it here
[4/7/2004 11:51:11 PM] <Investortrader> Any questions on OSUR?
[4/7/2004 11:51:30 PM] <AtlantaRob> What do you use the LinReg for, just to see the trend?
[4/7/2004 11:51:53 PM] <Investortrader> I use it because I've seen how successful Hotto is using it
[4/7/2004 11:52:07 PM] <mace> can act as support or resistance cnat it
[4/7/2004 11:52:15 PM] <Investortrader> Many times prices will use it as support or resistance
[4/7/2004 11:52:25 PM] <Nipsy331> what sort of sideways pattern might have worked for OSUR? I'm thinking about the sideways action in CBTE after it's pop up.
[4/7/2004 11:52:27 PM] <Investortrader> Right mace!
[4/7/2004 11:53:04 PM] <mace> Hotto bought this on bounce from LR30
[4/7/2004 11:53:06 PM] <AtlantaRob> thats what I was wondering, I've never heard that before, ty
[4/7/2004 11:53:43 PM] <bmweyrauch> fwiw - I use a LR30 on price (upper window) and an LR30 on OBV (middle window)...helps me compare the two
[4/7/2004 11:53:58 PM] <Investortrader> Once a stock is consolidating sideways ... I don't want to see it break down, if it does I sell
[4/7/2004 11:54:28 PM] <Investortrader> Many times I'll tradethe sideways action the first day or two, scalping the highs and buying the lows ... gives a bit of cushion for if it does break down
[4/7/2004 11:55:38 PM] <Nipsy331> Once it broke the 3/30 low, there was a breakdown.
[4/7/2004 11:55:49 PM] <Investortrader> I don't like this chart .. but it's hard to argue with Hotto
[4/7/2004 11:55:55 PM] <Noname> glad to finally hear somebody else does that IT

[4/7/2004 11:56:09 PM] <Investortrader> Hi Noname :)
[4/7/2004 11:56:43 PM] <Investortrader> Any questions on OSUR?
[4/7/2004 11:56:48 PM] <AtlantaRob> you don't think that the breakdown could have come from stops that accumulated from the consolidation, and "someone" pushed the stop just low enough to take them out, that's why it came back up halfway?
[4/7/2004 11:57:17 PM] <Investortrader> Rob, I don't argue with support, when it gets broken I get out, period
[4/7/2004 11:57:55 PM] <AtlantaRob> I agree, but I was just thinking that it may have been possible to get back in, but I respect your opinion very much
[4/7/2004 11:57:56 PM] <mace> good rule
[4/7/2004 11:58:28 PM] <Investortrader> Can always get back in :)
[4/7/2004 11:58:57 PM] <bmweyrauch> OSUR - sideways consolidation last few dasy now seems to be resistance to me ...even though volume was low those days....folks will be happy to get out at break even if/when price goes back to those levels
[4/7/2004 11:59:06 PM] <Investortrader> But the question for me is always ... where will the stop be placed
[4/7/2004 11:59:22 PM] <bmweyrauch> I was stopped out of OSUR today fwiw
[4/7/2004 11:59:29 PM] <Investortrader> I think so too bmw ...
[4/7/2004 11:59:38 PM] <bmweyrauch> I'll be quite now :)
[4/8/2004 12:00:01 AM] <Investortrader> No, you have good observations!
[4/8/2004 12:00:08 AM] <bmweyrauch> :)
[4/8/2004 12:00:29 AM] <DMut> do you enter stops? or use mental ones
[4/8/2004 12:00:32 AM] <croy> It ...can I ask you an OBV question ? I am interrupting a reading ?
[4/8/2004 12:00:45 AM] <Investortrader> Mental as I can watch all day
