[2/19/2004 8:36:10 AM] [wildbill] Good morning - another one of those "sleepy" days yesterday. Everyone just waiting around for a catalyst. Futures are foretelling a nice pop to the upside, quite possibly may be an "exhaustion" gap - but depending on how high they take it - another "squeeze" is also a possibility. I see things lower into end of week regardless. Apologize for the brevity this morning -- I have to catch a train. For those of you who follow my commentary in TCNet - I will not be around this am - Set your alerts and your stops and follow YOUR plan!! --RMBS -- gap up - SHORT - 35.31 to 35.78 - stop @36.18 ----- gap down - LONG - 34.52 to 34.10 - stop @33.68 -- INTL -- gap up - SHORT - 32.69 to 33.13 - stop @33.53----- gap down - LONG -
