[4/23/2004 10:49:59 AM] <TCNut> was especially fond of this MACE article. Notice the source Apr 14, 2004 (>>>The Philadelphia Inquirer<<<- Knight Ridder/Tribune Business News via COMTEX) -- Mace Security is run by Louis D. Paolino Jr., 47, a business executive with what seems to be an unerring instinct to make a buck by capturing business trends.
[4/23/2004 10:50:20 AM] <TCNut> In 2000, Paolino said he hoped to create an empire of hundreds of car washes. But he soon discovered that the car-washing business is sensitive to the economy and weather patterns. With surveillance products, Paolino has been trying to expand Mace in other ways.
[4/23/2004 10:50:33 AM] <TCNut> When questioned yesterday about the stock performance, company spokesman Eduardo Nieves said: "We really don't have any comment on the stock price."
