[4/22/2004 12:00:16 AM] <AlanD> My concern is that there will be new traders here who will get burned as the market corrects because the idea of shorting stocks is still counter intuitive to them and buying the dip is so ingrained into a person that they will keep buying and taking losses as the market they are trading continues to fall.

[4/22/2004 12:00:34 AM] <TCNut> look at the chart...and if you can not assess your own risk appropriately....GO BACK TA BED!

[4/22/2004 12:00:48 AM] <AlanD> Agreed TCNut.

[4/22/2004 12:01:07 AM] <TCNut> or join the Navy

[4/22/2004 12:01:17 AM] <TCNut> heheheh....couldn't resist

[4/22/2004 12:03:22 AM] <AlanD> LOL, the Navy is often more exciting.

[4/22/2004 12:06:27 AM] <cuidado> I can't resist a comment or two about hotto's mission after reading the recent ones above....

[4/22/2004 12:07:22 AM] <cuidado> I think his mission is really to help as many people as he can to learn to trade effectively...

[4/22/2004 12:08:19 AM] <TCNut> Especially after achieving as high a rank as yourself! Unfortunately, I can only imagine....probably would have been the best thing I ever did. Kick down on the rank update please;)

[4/22/2004 12:08:33 AM] <cuidado> I also think it's reasonable that he would want to get paid for it, which by definition means outside of TCNet

[4/22/2004 12:09:30 AM] <AlanD> Rank update? What am I?

[4/22/2004 12:09:58 AM] <TCNut> yeah....

[4/22/2004 12:10:17 AM] <TCNut> aye aye sir!

[4/22/2004 12:10:42 AM] <TCNut> I know it is an impressive level

[4/22/2004 12:10:55 AM] <AlanD> It pays the bills. LOL

[4/22/2004 12:11:46 AM] <TCNut> though not quite admiral yet! Harmon Rabb would be impressed

[4/22/2004 12:12:08 AM] <AlanD> All good things come with patience. Who is Harmon Rabb?

[4/22/2004 12:12:09 AM] <TCNut> oh....and Mac too

[4/22/2004 12:12:15 AM] <TCNut> yummy!

[4/22/2004 12:12:28 AM] <TCNut> the tv show JAG

[4/22/2004 12:12:50 AM] <AlanD> Ok, I rarely watch it. Not very realistic.

[4/22/2004 12:13:15 AM] <TCNut> yeah...yeah....but mac is!

[4/22/2004 12:13:25 AM] <AlanD> First, most of the Navy women I know do not look like the women in JAG.

[4/22/2004 12:13:47 AM] <AlanD> Next, JAGs don't wear side arms.

[4/22/2004 12:13:51 AM] <AlanD> !!!

[4/22/2004 12:13:56 AM] <TCNut> cathrine bell...bout as good as it gets

[4/22/2004 12:14:05 AM] <AlanD> Yep.

[4/22/2004 12:15:31 AM] <AlanD> FYI, my indicators showing one more low on the NDX before a descent rally will occur.

[4/22/2004 12:15:43 AM] <TCNut> so how often are you out at sea? or, just hanging in coranado?

[4/22/2004 12:16:03 AM] <AlanD> Just hanging out right now but will be going to sea next month.

[4/22/2004 12:17:08 AM] <Aktony> AlanD, what do you mean "descent rally?" The last bounce before the summer decline?

[4/22/2004 12:17:09 AM] <TCNut> would make me feel a lot better if the DJ-30 and SPY had tapped the 200ma,s

[4/22/2004 12:18:11 AM] <happy> Alan...lol

[4/22/2004 12:19:11 AM] <happy> WE use to say women in army don't look like women at all

[4/22/2004 12:21:20 AM] <TCNut> is there a way to gauge when you have your next advance in rank? Or, just wait and see what connections and assets you have achieved throughout your carrer?

[4/22/2004 12:21:34 AM] <AlanD> Last bounce, most likely but need to see more patterns unfold first.

[4/22/2004 12:22:10 AM] <AlanD> There is a career path and we know when we are eligible for promotion.

[4/22/2004 12:22:30 AM] <Aktony> AlanD. I am looking at a daily on the compqx and see a possible inverse h & s...so I was interested in your comment

[4/22/2004 12:24:35 AM] <AlanD> I use Elliotwave analysis as a primary tool and fibs in support of EWA. Trendline analysis and volume. If my analysis is correct, we should see one more downleg to the 1380-1420 area followed by a bounce up between 1500-1600 near term.

[4/22/2004 12:24:55 AM] <AlanD> Hey gotta run and get some movie rentals back to the store before they close.

[4/22/2004 12:25:14 AM] <AlanD> Thats on the NDX

[4/22/2004 12:25:21 AM] <Aktony> Interesting comments; thanks. Will keep an eye on the NDX

[4/22/2004 12:25:31 AM] <TCNut> g-night

[4/22/2004 12:26:37 AM] <AlanD> I could always be wrong but my longer term analysis seldom is. My intraday is pretty good too. Thanks Wildbill. See you guys.

[4/22/2004 12:27:19 AM] <TCNut> 200 ma's fore all major indexes would be nice support....

[4/22/2004 12:28:12 AM] <TCNut> funny how I typed Fore! on accidentThe other day felt like that

[4/22/2004 12:28:32 AM] <TCNut> out on the Greenspan's

[4/22/2004 12:29:07 AM] <TCNut> with my 4 iron in the sand traps

[4/22/2004 12:35:25 AM] <TCNut> too bad the Nasdaq wasn't around when the real Ford jumped on the band wagon

[4/22/2004 12:35:37 AM] <TCNut> wagon

[4/22/2004 12:37:24 AM] <TCNut> CashMan....this is kinda the same formation as DRXR....that i am so hooked on.....lots o support

[4/22/2004 12:37:57 AM] <CashMan> FORD = Forward Industries Inc

[4/22/2004 12:39:09 AM] <TCNut> WAVX.....sucked me in 7 days ago on a pop like that....and really cheap 2.50calls..about 5 days ago....but Wavx has not based like ford and DRXR have

[4/22/2004 12:44:03 AM] <TCNut> i already sold my 17.50 calls....4 days ago....and bought back in on the dip

[4/22/2004 12:45:35 AM] <TCNut> wish I could say the same for VISG! I had 3 chances with my 12.50 calls at around 14 bucksxP and thought it was just getting started.....well...so what if it is!

[4/22/2004 12:46:18 AM] <bmweyrauch> DRXR - looks like 200 ma might be another add to point it it pulls back that far again...price volume action looks very good

[4/22/2004 12:46:56 AM] <TCNut> I should have sold first ting on the news....and looked to get back in.....greedy pig holding IDNX and VISG to....."hoping" by the way! eeeeeeaakdamnit!

[4/22/2004 12:48:19 AM] <TCNut> the options have tons of time value....however, i should lock in profits while they are there....moral of story

[4/22/2004 12:51:31 AM] <TCNut> FORD has not been much higher in a loooooong loooooong time! CashMan

[4/22/2004 12:51:49 AM] <TCNut> hope they have great news

[4/22/2004 12:53:26 AM] <TCNut> if you are hooked on penny stocks....instead of taking advantage of the low cost o options, check out the Alaric Club

[4/22/2004 12:54:11 AM] <TCNut> wow! the news looks sweet though!

[4/22/2004 12:54:46 AM] <TCNut> maybe time to really break out

[4/22/2004 12:56:14 AM] <TCNut> I need a good cheapy broker.....what is the best one?

[4/22/2004 12:57:32 AM] <Newkid49> TCNUT, i've been in DRXR since 10/00...the stock incredibly hugs those averages.....some day, some day soon i hope.....personally, i'm looking forward...to much so...to the May contract announcements. Also, i've never seen the stock trade like this before except during 9/11....i've never even liked the charting for the most part

[4/22/2004 12:59:04 AM] <TCNut> I already have a sweet option broker....thinkorswim.com.....the trading platform makes it all worth it...

[4/22/2004 12:59:26 AM] <TCNut> they don't mess around with lots of penny stocks though

[4/22/2004 1:00:02 AM] <bmweyrauch> ThinkorSwim is nice

[4/22/2004 1:00:44 AM] <TCNut> please don't do just htinkin anymore.....!!!.....that's old joke

[4/22/2004 1:03:24 AM] <TCNut> you have been with them for 4 years....?.....any input on the fundamental projections for the company?

[4/22/2004 1:05:05 AM] <TCNut> we are talking pocket pool boy!

[4/22/2004 1:05:18 AM] <Newkid49> they should turn profitable again someday...i got into it primarily because of the future of cardin' 'em & it's a dual sector stock...i like stocks that aren't necessarily tied directly to their sector

[4/22/2004 1:05:25 AM] <TCNut> SPP can help in the analysis

[4/22/2004 1:06:28 AM] <Newkid49> btw.....i'm a lefty....pretty much ambidextrios(sp) but primarily a lefty

[4/22/2004 1:07:22 AM] <Newkid49> perhaps being a lefty is what keeps me htinking....oops, sorry

[4/22/2004 1:09:46 AM] <bmweyrauch> SCHS - G minus stock....OBV divergence....possible short or PUT play

[4/22/2004 1:09:56 AM] <TCNut> GoldenEagle I am very happy with thinkorswim.com....and have considered testing out optionsxpress.....but, I am seeking the best penny stock broker....wtih sweet fills and broke dick commissions

[4/22/2004 1:14:03 AM] <AlanD> I use Ameritrade for Pennies. You can buy 1 share or 1million shares and it still only cost 10.99.

[4/22/2004 1:14:18 AM] <Newkid49> fidelity gold plan

[4/22/2004 1:14:37 AM] <Newkid49> $8

[4/22/2004 1:17:47 AM] <AlanD> I'm just visiting tonight.

[4/22/2004 1:18:37 AM] <bmweyrauch> TOS very good for options and have my IRA thewre....Interactive Brokers for cash account = good platform and low commisions...see their website for details....off to bed...light chat stream volume may be due to rough markets of late....also..InvestorTrader not doing chart lessons this week while on vacation....good fortune tomorrow all....GN

[4/22/2004 1:19:38 AM] <TCNut> no.....AlanD....you had left!

[4/22/2004 1:20:41 AM] <TCNut> I was rousting private messages that should not be shy....so we TCAddicts can all have a more enjoyable fix this fine evening=D

[4/22/2004 1:21:23 AM] <GoldenEagle>

http://www.optionsxpress.com/quote_option_chain.asp?SESSIONID=&IsSubmitted=true if the theo value is in the red and higher than the ask price for the option then that means that the option is under valued and might be a buy in to check on the exact option you can plug in the symbol at big charts and chart the options price.

[4/22/2004 1:21:43 AM] <AlanD> I had left? Yes to go to the video store but on a nightly basis, I'm usually in other places.

[4/22/2004 1:21:48 AM] <AlanD> in TCNet

[4/22/2004 1:21:49 AM] <Newkid49> YELL=BTBO, low vol tho

[4/22/2004 1:23:26 AM] <Newkid49> WIN=BTBO, but they have lawsuits against them

[4/22/2004 1:24:31 AM] <TCNut> no worries....AlanD....I was trying to suck out more shy lurkers.....and/or at least get them to stop holding back! Kick down.....if you are around....let your knowledge and persona fly!

[4/22/2004 1:25:29 AM] <GoldenEagle> tcnut was that information good for you

[4/22/2004 1:25:46 AM] <TCNut> had such a nice time buying YELL calls when they dipped on the purchase of ROAD! NewKid

[4/22/2004 1:26:17 AM] <rsi77> How about DOVP for possilbe short...seems like too extended to continue uptrend....

[4/22/2004 1:27:21 AM] <TCNut> last summer.....one of best trades ever.....not sayin much though....have not been around long

[4/22/2004 1:28:11 AM] <Noname> DOVP-daily in a defined uptrend-hourly turning back up-why short something that is going up-what is your time frame

[4/22/2004 1:29:15 AM] <Newkid49> TC, we've been trading approx the same length of time....i began last June also...have been in the mrkt since '84

[4/22/2004 1:29:52 AM] <rsi77> I wouldn't short it right this moment, but it looks like it's loosing momentum...I always see charts after they've failed, and it seems like it would be better to catch them right as they fail...set a stop loss at recent high which will always be resistance point anyway....

[4/22/2004 1:29:54 AM] <TCNut> I graduated in '84 ;)

[4/22/2004 1:30:05 AM] <TCNut> class slogan....

[4/22/2004 1:31:34 AM] <TCNut> DOVP....looks like market health would help a swift decline
[4/22/2004 1:31:34 AM] <rsi77> DOVP, recent high shows negative divergence with respect to OBV....last leg was up on generally lower volume
[4/22/2004 1:32:00 AM] <TCNut> obv kickin butt though
[4/22/2004 1:32:39 AM] <GoldenEagle> looking for FMDAY to move off the 50 day I will set a kick in price
[4/22/2004 1:32:53 AM] <rsi77> Higher, but negative divergence with price....also true for MACD
[4/22/2004 1:33:29 AM] <Newkid49> i see DRXR traded up in AH
[4/22/2004 1:34:09 AM] <TCNut> don't see it falling much....seems like it is testing highs of last year and may consolidate a bit lower...but nice uptrend for quite awhile
[4/22/2004 1:37:07 AM] <rsi77> Well, maybe you're right...but I see price increase without confirmation from two fundamentally different types of indicators...but it did break the highs of last year...anyway, thanks for the comments...I'll just be watching it
[4/22/2004 1:38:04 AM] <TCNut> would be very surprised if it broke 50 ma....and if so....100\200sma\ema's are strong support.....sept through dec were brutal though!!! RSI>>>
[4/22/2004 1:38:27 AM] <TCNut> what happened then?
[4/22/2004 1:39:03 AM] <TCNut> that gap down....and how have they built back up after....seems to be the key
[4/22/2004 1:41:46 AM] <rsi77> Yeah, pricewise it's definately looking strong...and it does look like those MA's won't let it go too far...I'll just watch and see what happens.
[4/22/2004 1:41:55 AM] <TCNut> how about NFLX....you guys....n guinas~if any are hopefully around....
[4/22/2004 1:42:31 AM] <rsi77> GN all, bedtime for me
[4/22/2004 1:42:52 AM] <TCNut> DOVP seems like it has pretty much been in an uptrend from the start outta tha gates n rollin
[4/22/2004 1:44:40 AM] <TCNut> new Traffic Signals Template....OBV n MACD in lower window.....very beneficial
[4/22/2004 1:48:24 AM] <TCNut> good night rsi.....wish you luck.....seems like lots a better short than DOVP....that sector has been showing promise of late tooo!
[4/22/2004 1:49:20 AM] <TCNut> NFLX....probably stupid for buying two more puts at todays LOD
[4/22/2004 1:49:37 AM] <TCNut> think the 200 ma's are beconing...though

[4/22/2004 2:27:12 AM] <TCNut> to CMI....would love to hear the story on VH1

[4/22/2004 2:27:24 AM] <Lindahg> I use 10 20 40 50 200 dma

[4/22/2004 2:28:18 AM] <Lindahg> shard chart is by bob cumming that goes with his 4 MACD

[4/22/2004 2:29:53 AM] <TCNut> if anything, I would add more exponential ma's.....10ma is too close to the movement of the candles....and the 40....too close to the 50 ma...had to cut down with trend line overflows

[4/22/2004 3:31:33 PM] <BossFan> IEIB at SMA20...bounce here?

[4/22/2004 3:31:54 PM] <acmetrader> It's why some of us are getting killed in Hotto picks that are more speculative, we need better money management...and it is human nature to just let it ride...ugh

[4/22/2004 3:32:10 PM] <w2jc> Boss ... you gotta find some buyers for ieib before it bounces !!

[4/22/2004 3:32:50 PM] <Newkid49> ISNS=c 8x d vol

[4/22/2004 3:33:26 PM] <BossFan> Ok, let me go stand outside with sign to see if anyone wants to buy IEIB and FVCX...brb

[4/22/2004 3:33:51 PM] <acmetrader> lol Boss

[4/22/2004 3:33:56 PM] <america> loog, aren't you gonna lead acme and me in setting stops?

[4/22/2004 3:33:59 PM] <SeattleSteve> QQQ +2.3% with the SMH (semi holders) down for the day. That might be a first.

[4/22/2004 3:34:25 PM] <ProfitTrader> Boss, I can switch some BKHM for FVCX with you - 1:1:D

[4/22/2004 3:34:38 PM] <acmetrader> QQQ has serious resistance at 37, it must get and hold over that imho

[4/22/2004 3:35:01 PM] <BossFan> Cool...OK, just sold 10K FVCX...your turn :P

[4/22/2004 3:35:05 PM] <turningpoint> it's a sign Seattle

[4/22/2004 3:35:21 PM] <america> acme, i guess luigi isn't gonna lead us. we'll have to do it ourselves.

[4/22/2004 3:35:54 PM] <ProfitTrader> I just have 1K BKHM in IRA - will keep them...double:P

[4/22/2004 3:36:11 PM] <acmetrader> we need several luigis, and then have class where they offer their expertise so us stops for dummies can learn

[4/22/2004 3:36:51 PM] <hotto> tina gave a talk on setting Stops.. I have gone over it a couple times..

[4/22/2004 3:36:54 PM] <payck> several luigi's, I don't know acme... think about that

[4/22/2004 3:37:06 PM] <hotto> It's not hard.. just have to DO it !

[4/22/2004 3:37:18 PM] <acmetrader> well Hotto, it isn't enough for some of us

[4/22/2004 3:37:23 PM] <StockEng> Hotto..you see FISV today? Wow!

[4/22/2004 3:37:25 PM] <acmetrader> we need more lessons to DO it

[4/22/2004 3:38:00 PM] <turningpoint> Short mer

[4/22/2004 3:38:20 PM] <Newkid49> Tina's lesson2 was 12/6

[4/22/2004 3:38:24 PM] <joeinkc> Boss... i just Bt a small lot of FVCX.. maybe now it can get the wash out over with... :o

[4/22/2004 3:38:26 PM] <Rondon> It's more about dicipline,,,,,,,,,,,,, for me

[4/22/2004 3:38:38 PM] <cobralso> somethings wrong with CCJ It's like running water It just wont stop!

[4/22/2004 3:39:04 PM] <Luigistock> Hotto really telling the truth as Quitas said the other night "most of us knwo what to do its that we dont do it"

[4/22/2004 3:39:18 PM] <acmetrader> Agreed Rondon, but many of us are entrepreneurs or creative types and disciplin is unnatural if you ask me..so we REALLY have to work at it

ClubHome

[4/22/2004 3:39:46 PM] <TPFTrader> I traded with those types over the years, they don't trade anymore

[4/22/2004 3:39:52 PM] <acmetrader> Many of us in life are succesful by making it happen...you can't do that in the market sucessfully

[4/22/2004 3:40:17 PM] <BossFan> TY joe for your support...

[4/22/2004 3:40:42 PM] <Quintus> Naz bredth crumbling, NYSE chillin

[4/22/2004 3:40:51 PM] <turningpoint> I never know what to do

[4/22/2004 3:41:06 PM] <BWill> trading is an unnatural combination of art and discipline.... that's why so few do it well (me included) but those who do are very well paid ;)

[4/22/2004 3:41:27 PM] <acmetrader> wel TPFTrader that may be what happens but I wonder if there isn't a way to help those types do better as well

[4/22/2004 3:41:38 PM] <turningpoint> so I do both

[4/22/2004 3:41:56 PM] <Quintus> me either t - point. i just try not to get run over. and make it just my toe or foot if i do..

[4/22/2004 3:42:02 PM] <Rondon> Acme,,,,,,,,,U are soooo right on

[4/22/2004 3:42:50 PM] <General> very profound acme

[4/22/2004 3:42:55 PM] <TPFTrader> The guys that have the most trouble have rules, but end up breaking them

[4/22/2004 3:43:08 PM] <BossFan> hey, I didn't really sell 10K FVCX! :) At least not yet

[4/22/2004 3:43:09 PM] <turningpoint> cscs showing where the new stop should be

[4/22/2004 3:43:50 PM] <StockStalker> IDSA holy moly

[4/22/2004 3:43:51 PM] <turningpoint> 22.95 for me

[4/22/2004 3:43:55 PM] <acmetrader> Because some of us just do well in life breaking rules, new ground, etc...and we have the occasional pure luke wins that reinforce that in trading but it is a big mistake to trade that way

[4/22/2004 3:44:10 PM] <acmetrader> luke=luck

[4/22/2004 3:44:19 PM] <hotto> correct !

[4/22/2004 3:44:34 PM] <CodyCare> whats up with IDSA

[4/22/2004 3:44:58 PM] <ron643> FVCX holing 20ma with a doji....I think that means the sellers have given up

[4/22/2004 3:45:02 PM] <dagwood> took a 100k loss to smart'n me up..... back in ole '98... now I play only about 10% of what I see

[4/22/2004 3:45:03 PM] <erisalaw> TASR options I called out a while agor are up 10% from purchase FWIW.

[4/22/2004 3:45:50 PM] <hotto> But.. then must be able to leave some money on the table.. when your rules say sell.. and the stock keeps going.. very hard to do.

[4/22/2004 3:46:03 PM] <husker> jidsa

[4/22/2004 3:46:11 PM] <mstrader> dag, did you buy AMAT calendar?

[4/22/2004 3:46:35 PM] <TPFTrader> Hotto, you do it as well as anyone I've ever seen

[4/22/2004 3:46:36 PM] <TrillionDolarMan> Good comment, Bill W.

[4/22/2004 3:47:00 PM] <hotto> SYNC.. needs a retest of low.. then.. may be its time..

[4/22/2004 3:47:03 PM] <TrillionDolarMan> This feels like May 20th of 2003 to me...

[4/22/2004 3:47:09 PM] <AllWeOwn> I can show you some ocean-front property in AZ over by INV's place next

[4/22/2004 3:47:10 PM] <turningpoint> sorta like skiing eh TDM?

[4/22/2004 3:47:22 PM] <TrillionDolarMan> close enough...

[4/22/2004 5:14:25 PM] <turningpoint> thx nk where do you get your short int data?
[4/22/2004 5:15:26 PM] <tffssf> the problem with the yhoo data, newkid, is that it is old--DRXR traded 44mm shares a few days ago and we don't know how many got out (or in)...
[4/22/2004 5:16:21 PM] <mace> TC net short interest is adjusted each sat per tech support
[4/22/2004 5:18:40 PM] <turningpoint> ty mace, the other calc that needs to be done for the best approach imo is to see what variance from the avg sht int exists and how price is affected
