[1/1/2004 9:55:06 AM] [hotto] Updated... I read DW's comment... brings up a New Year's resolution for me...

[1/1/2004 9:56:26 AM] [hotto] time to learn what Robert Burns meant in the poem... with the words... "auld lang syne"...

[1/1/2004 9:58:27 AM] [hotto] Meg Ryan said in one of those movies with Tom Hanks... something lilke..."well - it's about old friends"... probably.

[1/1/2004 9:59:25 AM] [hotto] another exit now... make sure my Watchlist names are safe.. then run Scans

[1/1/2004 10:00:34 AM] [MichaelNorris] It turns out that "Auld Lang Syne" is an extremely old Scottish song that was first written down in the 1700s. Robert Burns is the person whose transcription got the most attention, so the song is associated with him.

[1/1/2004 10:00:53 AM] [MichaelNorris] a good translation of the words "auld lang syne" is "times gone by."

[1/1/2004 10:00:54 AM] [Oregongeordie] I believe I remember it as "for time gone by."

[1/1/2004 10:01:38 AM] [hotto] thanks guys

under impression that they would not allow them.
[1/1/2004 2:00:21 PM] [Fern] i only do 2000 shares or less with them, love the quick excecution and their level ii is very good, with 2000 or more shares the commisions are too much
[1/1/2004 2:01:19 PM] [Fern] you are right no good till cancel stops allowed, but i don't hold many open positions and it forces me to review my stops every day plus bid / ask seems to lag TCNet quotes. I imagine that Ameritrade USA same problems.

[1/1/2004 2:13:47 PM] [techlord61] Scottrade is much better....

[1/1/2004 2:14:17 PM] [Steven57] IB .01/1st 500s .005/share thereafter, no extra ECN, SEC fees min commish $1,000s = $5 1000s = $7.50

[1/1/2004 2:14:22 PM] [techlord61] never had a problem like this with them

[1/1/2004 2:14:44 PM] [Steven57] pardon my french, but Scottrade sucks

[1/1/2004 2:15:08 PM] [JoRichDaddy] I'm on Ameritrade now and moving to E-Trade next week. Ameritrade is too slow. Application based software must be better. I'll see.....

[1/1/2004 2:15:44 PM] [techlord61] why you have some bad experience with them?

[1/1/2004 2:16:18 PM] [gary12] E-Trade Pro is good

[1/1/2004 2:16:19 PM] [TraderStar] I really really strongly suggest not going with IB. TradeStation is way better for speed, accuracy, support .. and honest executions of trade (I was with IB for 8 months...)

[1/1/2004 2:17:13 PM] [Steven57] I had Scottrade, before Elite, BETA tested Elite for them, left before Elite made it to mkt, I lost a lot of money due to "Computer" errors

[1/1/2004 2:17:46 PM] [JoRichDaddy] Ameritrade..Nothing specific except order execution speed, no straddle limits, and can't hold long and short in same account. Otherwise OK. Just looking for other features.

[1/1/2004 2:17:52 PM] [Steven57] I looked at TradeStation, but couldn't justify the fees

[1/1/2004 2:18:17 PM] [Steven57] If you want to trade, you need direct access

[1/1/2004 2:18:26 PM] [TraderStar] use it for a month ...they pay for themselves many times over

[1/1/2004 2:18:49 PM] [TraderStar] I lose money on IB w/o the fees...due to bad executions

[1/1/2004 2:19:10 PM] [Steven57] haven't had execution probs with IB so far

[1/1/2004 2:19:21 PM] [TraderStar] TS is direct access, IB is not always

[1/1/2004 2:19:29 PM] [Steven57] usually executes before my finger leaves the mouse

[1/1/2004 2:19:55 PM] [Steven57] explain not always,,, I use CyberTrader as well

[1/1/2004 2:20:48 PM] [techlord61] how much it cost TS?

[1/1/2004 2:21:04 PM] [TraderStar] same per share price as IB

[1/1/2004 2:21:31 PM] [TraderStar] plus the trading platform ... but that is well worth it

[1/1/2004 2:21:42 PM] [gary12] TS 100.00 month

[1/1/2004 2:22:02 PM] [techlord61] a $100 ?

[1/1/2004 2:22:10 PM] [Steven57] TS is .001/500 then .006

ClubHome

[1/1/2004 2:22:21 PM] [Steven57] plus the platform fee
[1/1/2004 2:22:51 PM] [Steven57] to be fair, the platform fee is giving you charting, backtesting and otherstuff
[1/1/2004 2:23:23 PM] [Steven57] but if you have eSignal, QCharts or other charting, then you are paying for another charting service
[1/1/2004 2:23:36 PM] [Steven57] not that there's anything wrong with that
[1/1/2004 2:24:10 PM] [Steven57] CyberTrader PRO is 249/mo unless you do 50 trades/month, then free
[1/1/2004 2:25:08 PM] [Steven57] TraderStar, explain what you meant that IB isn't always direct access
[1/1/2004 2:26:07 PM] [Steven57] TS is 2.50/side for eMini IB is 2.40/sid
[1/1/2004 2:27:46 PM] [Steven57] need 10k min to open TS,,,2k with IB
[1/1/2004 2:29:05 PM] [TraderStar] justv a sec...on phone
[1/1/2004 2:35:07 PM] [TraderStar] I was with IB for 8 months .. finally got fed up with customer no-service & too frequent down time. Switched to TS but left some account in IB as I had active trades going. For past 2 months have been trading side by side, TS & IB .. there is a world of difference in speed of execution & getting my price with TS ... IB does not always "seem" to be direct access due to execution delays & not often getting my exact price. Also during this time TS has not had one moment of downtime, IB .. it is frequent & too often with I have an important trade to do. Since switching to TS I am making more money faster due to exection speed & accuracy plus their incredible trading platform with all its high-powered anaylsis tools. I'm going to be writing a more lengthy explanation of my experience with TS vs IB, will let you know when it is posted to my club... just my opinion of course!
[1/1/2004 2:38:14 PM] [ken2k] what is your club TraderStar?
[1/1/2004 2:38:28 PM] [TraderStar] 1stGraderTraders
[1/1/2004 2:38:38 PM] [ken2k] ty
[1/1/2004 2:40:13 PM] [Derfel] I've been using IB for a couple of months. My only complaint is that sometimes they can't get stock to short, even in the small amounts I'm trading.
[1/1/2004 2:41:57 PM] [Steven57] I started with Scottrade, added Ameritrade, dumped Ameritrade, added CyberTrader, dumped Scottrade, added optionXpress, and just added IB,,,,I like CyberTrader alot, but 9.95 per trade is not true in some cases
[1/1/2004 2:42:24 PM] [kennethroyal] TradeStar - my only ? is if TS so full of excellent analysis tools, you are duplicating what is available in TCNet. Derfel - Ameritrade often w/o stock to short.
[1/1/2004 2:42:28 PM] [Steven57] as long as you use Island then no ECN fees\

[1/1/2004 2:43:01 PM] [Steven57] kenn, TradeStar is nothing like TCNet
[1/1/2004 2:43:20 PM] [Steven57] TCNet is great for a backup and chat, not for active trading
[1/1/2004 2:43:51 PM] [Steven57] many many times TCNet is way off on bid/ask numbers
[1/1/2004 2:44:16 PM] [Steven57] in premarket TCNet is 4-5 minutes behind at times
[1/1/2004 2:45:55 PM] [gary12] RT on TCNet is very sluggish lol
[1/1/2004 2:46:24 PM] [sisterpractical] that was true some time ago, but recently has not been true in my experience. compares for bid/ask w/ what I see on level II from two other sources. it does appear that not all servers were created equal on tc however, so some folks will have problems while others don't
[1/1/2004 2:46:52 PM] [Steven57] sister it was true on Wednesday morn for most of pre
[1/1/2004 2:46:56 PM] [TraderStar] comparing TCNeet to TS for analysis is like comparing a Yugo to a BMW (or insert your own preferred luxury car....)
[1/1/2004 2:47:41 PM] [Steven57] I have 4 feeds and TCNet is the odd man out any time theres a difference
[1/1/2004 2:47:55 PM] [sisterpractical] in pre I only pay attention to direct trading screen - nothing else will be correct because of the way bid/ask is reported
[1/1/2004 2:48:06 PM] [Steven57] TCNet is great for chat and EOD, not for intraday
[1/1/2004 2:48:40 PM] [TraderStar] TCNet is worth its cost for what we are doing now .. exchange of information .. and it can be useful for some EOD analytics & note keeping .. but not (IMO) for active trading
[1/1/2004 2:49:37 PM] [reapersweeper] critique OptionsXpress, thanx.
[1/1/2004 2:49:53 PM] [TraderStar] there are costs of doing business successfully .. TCNet is one, TS platform is another, I use a couple of others ... they all help me make more money so what I spend is inconsequential by comparison
[1/1/2004 2:49:54 PM] [Derfel] I trade mostly based on hourly charts -- I have a day job and can't watch the screen all the time -- would TS help much? (versus TCNet)
[1/1/2004 2:50:13 PM] [BossFan] Hey all....Happy New Year! May you all have a wonderful and profitable 2004!
[1/1/2004 2:50:56 PM] [TraderStar] it would help incredibly .. because you set your alerts & it lets you know when to look at the screen .. the alerts are incredibly sophisticated ... moving over trendlines, BB, moving averages, anything you can think of...
[1/1/2004 2:51:06 PM] [TraderStar] same to you Boss!
[1/1/2004 2:51:18 PM] [sisterpractical] if you still have a day job, spending all your trading profits on more feeds of different data sources isn't a good use of capital.

ClubHome

[1/1/2004 2:51:37 PM] [TraderStar] you can also set an alert that says "if this, this & that happen, then buy (or sell, short) the stock...

[1/1/2004 2:52:04 PM] [TraderStar] sister, TS platform makes you money, it is not spending trading profits...

[1/1/2004 2:52:04 PM] [Steven57] I use optionsXpress solely for the analytics

[1/1/2004 2:52:35 PM] [Steven57] I trade 80% of my time

[1/1/2004 2:52:42 PM] [Derfel] The alerts sound cool.... Is there a minimum monthly charge or other fees?

[1/1/2004 2:52:59 PM] [TraderStar] you pay for the trading platform

[1/1/2004 2:53:06 PM] [Borankin] Steven, I love optionsXpress, but the one thing that leaves much to be desired is their analysis.

[1/1/2004 2:53:14 PM] [Steven57] need different data sources to feed different programs, would love if they all could use the same feed

[1/1/2004 2:53:28 PM] [TraderStar] that would be useful steven

[1/1/2004 2:53:42 PM] [Steven57] Bor I'm not deep into options as you know, it serves me at the moment

[1/1/2004 2:53:43 PM] [TraderStar] but they all want their money .. so have to make choices

[1/1/2004 2:54:02 PM] [Derfel] How much is the TS trading platform?

[1/1/2004 2:54:07 PM] [Steven57] 100/mo

[1/1/2004 2:54:07 PM] [TraderStar] $99 a month

[1/1/2004 2:54:30 PM] [Steven57] is that per account or can join?

[1/1/2004 2:54:35 PM] [TraderStar] that's what some people object to .. and that's what I thought at first too .. so I lost maybe $2-3K by NOT switching to TS sooner!

[1/1/2004 2:55:07 PM] [Borankin] My favorite options analysis program is Optionetics Platinum, even if it is only updated at the end of the day.

[1/1/2004 2:55:36 PM] [Steven57] you'll pay 85+ for eSignal or TCNet and not have trade capabilities, so joining the charting and trading makes sense

[1/1/2004 2:56:40 PM] [Steven57] they should have a TCNet lite, Chat only 10/month

[1/1/2004 2:56:46 PM] [reapersweeper] no complaints about optionXpress speed?

[1/1/2004 2:56:51 PM] [TraderStar] I tried ESignal .. good but not nearly as sophisticated as TS and it limites the # of stocks you can view .. a real bummer

[1/1/2004 2:57:11 PM] [Steven57] no, because one I don't do alot of options and 2 it's worked for me

[1/1/2004 2:57:17 PM] [CashMan] Some one take a look at SNAK and give me a opinion on it. I'm just curious what some else thinks. thanks

[1/1/2004 2:57:17 PM] [bmweyrauch] just passing through this morning....thanks for the discussion of brokers / platforms, I am seriopuusy considering either IB or TS,

[1/1/2004 2:59:46 PM] [Borankin] What is ECN?

[1/1/2004 3:01:30 PM] [reapersweeper] has to do with direct access, speed i think? looking up now

[1/1/2004 3:02:01 PM] [reapersweeper] sorry hotto's will change channels

[1/1/2004 3:03:36 PM] [gjfrey] whom can I use for a broker I have used Fidelity for several years buy thinking of changing

[1/1/2004 3:04:55 PM] [Steven57] Island is just one of many

[1/1/2004 3:05:01 PM] [Derfel] I still have my IRAs at Fidelity, but use IB for trading.

Used Ameritrade for a while, but IB commissions cheaper.

[1/1/2004 3:07:56 PM] [gjfrey] who is IB ?

[1/1/2004 3:08:10 PM] [Steven57] IB = Interactive Brokers

[1/1/2004 3:08:23 PM] [Steven57] Trading platform, no charting

[1/1/2004 3:09:01 PM] [gjfrey] Thank you

[1/1/2004 3:17:46 PM] [kennethroyal] Another NB aspect of a broker (whether assoc with charts or not) is ability to use with attachment acct (bank to / from broker facility). Also, whether broker has place where idle cash earns money)

[1/1/2004 3:42:32 PM] [sisterpractical] FIDeliity has direct access trading through Active Trader Pro software - I use it all the time. Enables continuous orders from pre-market thru post market of a day - also reserve limits and discretionary buys and sells. ARCA, BRUT, ISLD, INCA all ECN's. With their direct trading can also do direct to NYSE. (but no direct to amex).
